Retrospective June Yap, 2017-08-15 Developed as an exploratory study of artworks by artists of Singapore and Malaysia Retrospective attempts to account for contemporary artworks that engage with history These are artworks that reference past events or narratives of the nation and its art Through the examination of a selection of artworks produced between 1990 and 2012 Retrospective is both an attribution and an analysis of a historiographical aesthetic within contemporary art practice It considers that by their method and in their assembly these artworks perform more than a representation of a historical past Instead they confront history and its production laying bare the nature and designs of the historical project via their aesthetic project Positing an interdisciplinary approach as necessary for understanding the historiographical as aesthetic Retrospective considers not only historical and aesthetic perspectives but also the philosophical by way of ontology in order to broaden its exposition beyond the convention of historical and contextual interpretation of art Yet in associating these artworks with a historiographical aesthetic this exposition may be regarded as a historiographical exercise in itself affirming the significance of these artworks for the history of Singapore and Malaysia In short which history rarely is Retrospective is about the art of historicisation and the historicisation of art

Third Wave Capitalism John Ehrenreich, 2016-04-05 In Third Wave Capitalism John Ehrenreich documents the emergence of a new stage in the history of American capitalism Just as the industrial capitalism of the nineteenth century gave way to corporate capitalism in the twentieth recent decades have witnessed corporate capitalism evolving into a new phase which Ehrenreich calls Third Wave Capitalism Third Wave Capitalism is marked by apparent contradictions Rapid growth in productivity and lagging wages fabulous wealth for the 1 percent and the persistence of high levels of poverty increases in the standard of living and increases in mental illness personal misery and political rage the apotheosis of the individual and the deterioration of democracy increases in life expectancy and out of control medical costs an African American president and the incarceration of a large percentage of the black population Ehrenreich asserts that these phenomena are evidence that a virulent individualist winner take all ideology and a virtual fusion of government and business have subverted the American dream Greed and economic inequality reinforce the sense that each of us is on our own The result is widespread lack of faith in collective responses to our common problems The collapse of any organized opposition to business demands makes political solutions ever more difficult to imagine Ehrenreich traces the impact of these changes on American health care school reform income distribution racial inequities and personal emotional distress Not simply a lament Ehrenreich s book seeks clues for breaking out of our current stalemate and proposes a strategy to create a new narrative in which change becomes possible

Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. The Of October2013 Maths Paper : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
