The Orchard of Lost Souls Nadifa Mohamed,2014-03-04 From one of Granta's Best of Young British Novelists comes The Orchard of Lost Souls a stunning novel illuminating Somalia's tragic civil war. It is 1987 and Hargeisa waits. Whispers of revolution travel on the dry winds but still the dictatorship remains secure. Soon through the eyes of three women we will see Somalia fall. Nine year old Deqo has left the vast refugee camp where she was born lured to the city by the promise of her first pair of shoes. Kawsar a solitary widow is trapped in her little house with its garden clawed from the desert confined to her bed after a savage beating in the local police station. Filsan a young female soldier has moved from Mogadishu to suppress the rebellion growing in the north. As the country is unraveled by a civil war that will shock the world the fates of these three women are twisted irrevocably together. Nadifa Mohamed was born in Hargeisa and was exiled before the outbreak of war. In The Orchard of Lost Souls she returns to Hargeisa in her imagination. Intimate frank brimming with beauty and fierce love this novel is an unforgettable account of ordinary lives lived in extraordinary times. Freeman's: The Future of New Writing John Freeman, 2017-10-10 A diverse anthology of poetry fiction and essays from the most exciting writers around the world in this fresh provocative engrossing literary journal BBC com The literary anthology Freeman s created by writer critic and former Granta editor John Freeman has quickly gained an international following with wide acclaim It has been called bold and searching by the Minneapolis Star Tribune and impressively diverse by O Magazine This issue introduces a list of more than twenty five poets essayists novelists and short story writers from around the world who are shaping contemporary literature and will continue to impact it in years to come Drawing on recommendations from book editors critics translators and authors from across the globe Freeman s The Future of New Writing includes pieces from writers aged twenty five to seventy from almost twenty countries and writing in almost as many languages This will be a new kind of list and an aesthetic manifesto for our times Against a climate of nationalism and siloed thinking this special issue celebrates a global view of where writing is going next The oldest is 70 The youngest 26 In between the best list of this kind I have ever seen Marlon James Unsettled Families Sophia Balakian Ph.D., 2025-02-18 Against the backdrop of the global refugee crisis Unsettled Families investigates the parameters that Global North governments and international humanitarian organizations use to classify most displaced families more than 99% globally as ineligible for resettlement and often as fraudulent But fraud as a category is not as self evident as it may first appear Nor is the family Based on long term fieldwork between Nairobi Kenya and Columbus Ohio Sophia Balakian tells stories of Somali and Congolese refugees navigating a complicated global assemblage of humanitarian organizations immigration bureaucracies and national security agencies as they seek permanent new homes Viewing the concepts of fraud and family from different vantage points in this context Balakian shows how the categories begin to blur out of focus sometimes to evaporate altogether what seems to be contained within them scatter outside their received boundaries Practices that resettlement organizations deem fraudulent are often understood by people living as refugees to be moral actions in an unequal world Such practices allow them to fulfill obligations to kin kin defined expansively in ways that at times exceed the boundaries of normative US frameworks Bringing questions of kinship into current discussions on humanitarianism Balakian locates the family as a crucial category in processes of producing and contesting the boundaries of nation states in the 21st century
