The Mental Equivalent Emmett Fox, 2013-03-14 The key to life is to build in the mental equivalents of what you want and to expunge the equivalents of what you do not want How do you do it You build in the mental equivalents by thinking quietly constantly and persistently of the kind of thing you want and by thinking that has two qualities clearness or definiteness and interest If you want to build anything into your life if you want to bring health right activity your true place inspiration if you want to bring right companionship and above all if you want understanding of God form a mental equivalent of the thing which you want by thinking about it a great deal by thinking clearly and with interest Remember clarity and interest those are the two poles Wilder Publications is a green publisher All of our books are printed to order This reduces waste and helps us keep prices low while greatly reducing our impact on the environment The Mental Equivalent
