Morgue Large Print by Edgar Allan Poe The Murders in the Rue Morgue is a short story by Edgar Allan Poe published in Graham's Magazine in 1841. It has been claimed as the first detective story. Poe referred to it as one of his tales of ratiocination. Similar works predate Poe's stories including Das Fräulein von Scuderi 1819 by E. T. A. Hoffmann and Zadig 1748 by Voltaire. C. Auguste Dupin is a man in Paris who solves the mysterious brutal murder of two women. Numerous witnesses heard a suspect though no one agrees on what language was spoken. At the murder scene Dupin finds a hair that does not appear to be human. As the first true detective in fiction, the Dupin character established many literary devices which would be used in future fictional detectives including Sherlock Holmes and Hercule Poirot. Many later characters for example follow Poe's model of the brilliant detective, his personal friend who serves as narrator and the final revelation being presented before the reasoning that leads up to it. Dupin himself reappears in The Mystery of Marie Roget and The Purloined Letter.

The Murders in the Rue Morgue Edgar Allan Poe, 2017-07-25 How is this book unique? Font adjustments. Poe referred to it as one of his tales of ratiocination. Two works that share some similarities predate Poe's stories including Das Fräulein von Scuderi 1819 by E. T. A. Hoffmann and Zadig by Voltaire. The story opens with a lengthy explanation of ratiocination. Dupin demonstrates his prowess by deducing his companion's thoughts as if through apparent supernatural power. The story then turns to the baffling double murder of Madame L. Espanaye and her daughter at their home in the Rue Morgue, a fictional street in Paris. According to newspaper accounts, the mother was found in a yard behind the house with multiple broken bones and her throat so deeply cut that her head fell off when the body was moved. The daughter was found strangled to death and stuffed upside down into a chimney. The murders occurred in a fourth-floor room that was locked from the inside. On the floor were found a bloody straight razor, several bloody tufts of gray hair, and two bags of gold coins. Several witnesses reported hearing two voices at the time of the murder, one male and French, but disagreed on the language spoken by the other. The speech was unclear and every witness admits that he does not know the language he claims to have heard. The Murders in the Rue Morgue Edgar Allan Poe, 2018-04-23 The room was on the fourth floor and the door was locked with the key on the inside. The windows were closed and fastened on the inside. The chimney was too narrow for a cat to get through. So how did the murderer escape? And whose were the two angry voices heard by the neighbours as they ran up the stairs? Nobody in Paris could find any answers to this mystery except Auguste Dupin, who could see further and think more clearly than other people. The answers to the mystery were all there but only a clever man could see them. The Murders in the Rue Morgue by Edgar Allan Poe is widely considered to be the first true detective story.
