something between the two and rarely finding it Then in my practice teaching I happened into one of the early experimental high school courses in Interdisciplinary Humanities With the exciting interrelationships between art literature music philosophy and history I said YES this was what I had been looking for So I pioneered in teaching high school Humanities for the next few years Interdisciplinary Humanities was a bottom up movement Gradually colleges began offering Masters programs to give teachers the rich background they needed I decided I was not tied to Michigan where it was cold I would find the best Masters program in Humanities anywhere in the world and go there Well it turned out that the best Masters program in the world was at Wayne State University in Detroit of all places Unlike other programs that were really just double majors Wayne offered truly interdisciplinary classes Moreover they offered an Eastern track and a Western track Knowing that I would never find that Eastern track anywhere else I studied interdisciplinary courses in the cultures of India China Japan and Egypt The middle eastern professor was on sabbatical when I was there I especially liked India perhaps because I had already travelled around the world and India impressed me the most
