The No Nonsense Guide To Climate Change:

The No-nonsense Guide to Climate Change Dinyar Godrej, 2001 The No Nonsense Guide to Climate Change charts up to the minute developments on climate change explores the extent that the human race is responsible for the catastrophes and suggests what can be done to prevent them

The No-nonsense Guide to Climate Change Danny Chivers, 2010 A completely new book on the politics of climate change in a post Copenhagen world

No-Nonsense Guide to Climate Change Danny Chivers, 2011-03-17 Just as the need for action on climate change becomes more urgent and overwhelming the campaign to deny that humans are causing it has gained more traction This completely new book meets the skeptics head on offering a guide to the science an insight into the politics of climate justice and a clear sense of the way forward This is an ideal offering for students academics and anyone interested in the growing issue of society's impact on climate change and how to make climate justice a reality

The No-nonsense Guide to World Music Louise Gray, 2009 A look behind the catch all term world music aiming to explore the reasons for the contemporary interest in world music who its audience is and why it has become such a popular genre Through chapters on the many different genres that make up this multi faceted area the case for music as a powerful harmonising tool is aptly put forward

The No-nonsense Guide to Global Media Peter Steven, 2004

The No-nonsense Guide to Terrorism Jonathan Barker, 2003 Terrorism is a word that is thrown around very loosely by all sorts of people often by the biggest terrorists of all But what is its history as a concept and how can we make sense of all the competing meanings Who stands to gain when the word is used Barker challenges common misconceptions about terrorism and illustrates the ways in which both terrorism and counter terrorism undermine popular politics and democratic space

The No-nonsense Guide to International Migration Peter Stalker, 2001 The world is in motion Millions of people migrate every year in search of a better life Are they coming to steal jobs or live on welfare What happens to the communities they leave behind How do they fair in their new settings Why do rich countries need immigrants Will Canadians welcome these changes or allow prejudice and bigotry to hold us back

The No-nonsense Guide to International Development Maggie Black, 2002 The terms overseas aid and international development mask confusion contradiction and deceit All too often what passes for development improves life for the better off while actively hurting the very people the venture was meant to support Black argues that in order to truly defend the interests of the poor we need more realism less hypocrisy and a more accurate picture of what is happening in development's name

The No-nonsense Guide to World Poverty Jeremy Seabrook, 2003 This richly creative book the work of a uniquely original political writer takes a new look at world poverty Wealth and poverty are inseparable It may comfort the poor to believe the rich are not happy But is it true Strong evidence exists that the rich too suffer from the relationship of injustice albeit in a different way Seabrook explains the broad effects of poverty including crime and the fear of crime the traffic in people and drugs and the degradation of the natural world He examines the phrase A humanity wasted in one way or another by poverty or excess This is not a figure of speech he concludes It refers to the costs of poverty for both the poor and the rich Renewable Energy Danny Chivers,2016-09-09 Few people doubt the threat of climate change and the urgent need to conquer fossil fuel addiction But can renewable sources of energy ever be sufficient to provide modern societies with a decent quality of life This book is clear They can And it outlines the strategies to break the barriers to a 100% renewable world Danny Chivers presents a compelling introduction to renewable technologies for non technical readers solar wind hydro geothermal and ambient heat wave and tidal fuel crops and energy from waste and a roadmap to powering the world not just sustainably but democratically Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 The No-Nonsense Guide to Communication, Climate Justice and Climate Change ,2009 Transformative Sustainability Education Elizabeth A.

 Lange,2023-03-28 This book lays out the principles and practices of transformative sustainability education using a relational way of thinking and being Elizabeth A Lange advocates for a new approach to environmental and sustainability education that of rethinking the Western way of knowing and being and engendering a frank discussion about the societal elements that are generating climate environmental economic and social issues Highlighting the importance of Indigenous and life giving cultures the book covers educational theory transformation stories of adult learners social and economic critique and visions of changemakers Each chapter also has a strong pedagogical element with entry points for learners and embodied practices and examples of taking action at micro meso macro levels woven throughout Overall this book enacts a relational approach to transformative sustainability education that draws from post humanist theory process thought relational ontology decolonization theory Indigenous philosophy and a spirituality that builds a sense of sacred towards the living world Written in an imaginative storytelling manner this book will be a great resource for formal and nonformal environmental and sustainability educators Global Capitalism and Climate Change Hans A. Baer,2012-06-28 Many progressive scholars particularly in the social sciences have increasingly come to acknowledge that anthropogenic climate change constitutes yet another contradiction of global capitalism This book constitutes an effort to develop a critical social science of climate change one that posits its roots in global capitalism with its emphasis on profit making a treadmill of production and consumption heavy reliance on fossil fuels and commitment to ongoing economic expansion It explores the systemic changes necessary to create a more socially just and sustainable world system that would possibly start to move humanity toward a safer climate and discusses the role of a burgeoning climate movement in this effort My Quests for Hope and Meaning Rosemary Radford Ruether,2013-10-02 This book is an autobiography tracing Rosemary Radford Ruether s intellectual development and writing career Ruether examines the influence of her mother and family on her development and particularly her interactions with the Roman Catholic religious tradition She delves into her exploration of interfaith relations with Judaism and Islam as well Her educational formation at Scripps College and the importance of historical theology is also a major emphasis Mental illness has also affected Ruether s nuclear family in the person of her son and she details the family

s struggle with this issue Finally in this intellectual autobiography Ruether explores her long concern and involvement with ecology feminism and the quest for a spirituality and practice for a livable planet Rebels, Reds, Radicals Ian

McKay, 2005-04-28 In this brilliant and thoroughly engaging work Ian McKay sets out to revamp the history of Canadian socialism Drawing on models of left politics in Marx and Gramsci he outlines a fresh agenda for exploration of the Canadian left In rejecting the usual paths of sectarian or sentimental histories McKay draws on contemporary cultural theory to argue for an inventive strategy of reconnaissance This important groundbreaking work combines the highest standards of scholarship and a broad knowledge of current debates in the field Rebels Reds Radicals is the introduction to McKay's definitive multi volume work on the history of Canadian socialism volume one Reasoning Otherwise Leftists and the People's Enlightenment in Canada 1890-1920 is now available Decolonizing Social Work Mel Gray, John Coates, Michael Yellow Bird, Tiani Hetherington, 2016-05-13 Riding on the success of Indigenous Social Work Around the World this book provides case studies to further scholarship on decolonization a major analytical and activist paradigm among many of the world's Indigenous Peoples including educators tribal leaders activists scholars politicians and citizens at the grassroots level Decolonization seeks to weaken the effects of colonialism and create opportunities to promote traditional practices in contemporary settings Establishing language and cultural programs honouring land claims teaching Indigenous history science and ways of knowing self esteem programs celebrating ceremonies restoring traditional parenting approaches tribal rites of passage traditional foods and helping and healing using tribal approaches are central to decolonization These insights are brought to the arena of international social work still dominated by western based approaches Decolonization draws attention to the effects of globalization and the universalization of education methods of practice and international development that fail to embrace and recognize local knowledges and methods In this volume Indigenous and non Indigenous social work scholars examine local cultures beliefs values and practices as central to decolonization Supported by a growing interest in spirituality and ecological awareness in international social work they interrogate trends issues and debates in Indigenous social work theory practice methods and education models including a section on Indigenous research approaches The diversity of perspectives decolonizing methodologies and the shared struggle to provide effective professional social work interventions is reflected in the international nature of the subject matter and in the mix of contributors who write from their contexts in different countries and cultures including Australia Canada Cuba Japan Jordan Mexico New Zealand South Africa and the USA Let There Be Light! Robert S. Dutch, 2017-06-16 Have you ever wondered what it is like to work on a nuclear power plant Robert Dutch worked in the UK's nuclear industry for many years as a scientist and then as a tutor at a nuclear training center He also holds degrees in theology Drawing upon his qualifications and experience Robert addresses the controversial issue of nuclear power from a Christian perspective In contrast to a negative nuclear narrative often portrayed he presents a positive nuclear narrative alongside other ways of generating electricity Be prepared to be challenged to think seriously about nuclear s merits in providing clean low carbon electricity

Building the Critical Anthropology of Climate Change Hans A. Baer, Merrill Singer, 2024-08-14 This book applies a critical perspective to anthropogenic climate change and the global socio ecological crisis The book focuses on the critical anthropology of climate change by opening up a dialogue with the two main contending perspectives in the field namely the cultural ecological and the cultural interpretive perspectives Guided by these the authors take a firm stance on the types of changes that are needed to sustain life on Earth as we know it Within this framework they explore issues of climate and social equity the nature of the current era in Earth s geohistory the perspectives of the elite polluters driving climate change and the regrettable contributions of anthropologists and other scholars to climate change Engaging with perspectives from sociology political science and the geography of climate change the book explores various approaches to thinking about and responding to the existential threat of an ever warming climate In doing so it lays the foundation for a brave new sustainable world that is socially just highly democratic and climatically safe for humans and other species This book will be of interest to researchers and students studying environmental anthropology climate change human geography sociology and political science
