The Painted Furniture Of French Canada 1700 1840:

The Painted Furniture of French Canada, 1700-1840 John A. Fleming, Canadian Museum of Civilization, 1994 A major reference work for collectors and historians and a highly readable study for a general audience this is the first book about painted furniture in Canada and the first broad examination of furniture from French Canada in over three decades The Painted Furniture of French Canada, 1700-1840 Canadian Museum of Civilization, 1997 Painted Furniture of French Canada (1700-1840), The Canadian Museum of Civilization presents excerpts from the exhibition The Painted Furniture of French Canada 1700 1840 The museum offers a glossary games and details about other exhibitions Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include a citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers

Celebrating Canada Peter E. Baker, 2017-06-03 Inspired by the 150th anniversary of Canadian confederation Quebec author and antiques professional Peter E Baker brings life to Canadian history and demonstrates how antiques and folk art can successfully be incorporated into a contemporary lifestyle providing a home with a unique identity Material History Review, 2002 Coalescence of Styles Jane L. Cook, 2001-01-17 From the mid eighteenth century on cultural life in the northern valley of the St John River blended the traditions of Acadian and French Canadian settlers with those of American immigrants In the southern valley Mi kmaq interacted with American newcomers and Loyalist settlers while the later influx of Scottish and Irish immigrants introduced more layers of cultural traditions Using an impressively diverse combination of artifacts artwork maps and primary literature from over sixty museum collections and archives Cook addresses the experiences of immigrants and artisans and their influence on the cultural boundaries along one of eastern North America's most important rivers She moves beyond a mere catalogue of objects to provide an important comparative analysis of material heritage showing how furniture embodied the lifestyles of differing groups of settlers Art Market Research Tom McNulty, 2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders
