The Postsecular Imagination Postcolonialism Religion And Literature:

The Postsecular Imagination Manav Ratti, 2013 Through an intimate literary conjunction of religion and politics this book theorizes the emergence of a post secular condition of the contemporary world in which organized conventional religion has failed politically Nationalism has also had its failures after decolonization in the postcolonial world marked especially by ethnic violence civil war partition and communalism In the wake of such crises however we have still retained within us the need for faith wonder and enchantment which must now find its expression The Postsecular Imagination Manav Ratti, 2013-01-04 The Postsecular Imagination presents a rich interdisciplinary study of postsecularism as an affirmational political possibility emerging through the potentials and limits of both secular and religious thought While secularism and religion can foster inspiration and creativity they also can be linked with violence civil war partition majoritarianism and communalism especially within the framework of the nation state Through close readings of novels that engage with animism Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam and Sikhism Manav Ratti examines how questions of ethics and the need for faith awe wonder and enchantment can find expression and significance in the wake of such crises While focusing on Michael Ondaatje and Salman Rushdie Ratti addresses the work of several other writers as well including Shauna Singh Baldwin Mahasweta Devi Amitav Ghosh and Allan Sealy Ratti shows the extent of courage and risk involved in the radical imagination of these postsecular works examining how writers experiment with and gesture toward the compelling paradoxes of a non secular secularism and a non religious religion Drawing on South Asian Anglophone literatures and postcolonial theory and situating itself within the most provocative contemporary debates in secularism and religion The Postsecular Imagination will be important for readers interested in the relations among culture literature theory and politics Memory and Religion from a Postsecular Perspective Zuzanna Bogumił, Yuliya Yurchuk, 2022-02-27 The book argues that religion is a system of significant meanings that have an impact on other systems and spheres of social life including cultural memory The editors call for a postsecular turn in memory studies which would provide a more reflective and meaningful approach to the constant interplay between the religious and the secular This opens up new perspectives on the intersection of memory and religion and helps memory scholars become more aware of the religious roots of the language they are using in their studies of memory By drawing on examples from different parts of the world the contributors to this volume explain how the interactions between the religious and the secular produce new memory forms and content in the heterogeneous societies of the present day world These analyzed cases demonstrate that religion has a significant impact on cultural memory family memory and the contemporary politics of history in secularized societies At the same time politics grassroots movements and different secular agents and processes have so much influence on the formation of memory by religious actors that even religious ecclesiastic and confessional memories are affected by the secular This volume is ideal for students and scholars of memory studies religious studies and history The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Religion Susan M.

Felch,2016-09-12 Each essay in this Companion examines one or more literary texts and a religious tradition to illustrate how we can understand both literature and religion better by looking at them in tandem Unlike most literature and religion books which tend to focus on Christianity and take a highly theoretical approach inappropriate for non specialists The Cambridge Companion to Literature and Religion offers an accessible treatment of both Dharmic and Abrahamic traditions It provides close readings of texts rather than surveys of large topics making it an ideal resource for undergraduate and graduate students of literature and religion

Postsecular Poetics Rebekah Cumpsty,2022-08-11 This book is the first full length study of the postsecular in African literatures Religion secularism and the intricate negotiations between the two codified in recent criticism as postsecularism are fundamental conditions of globalized modernity These concerns have been addressed in social science disciplines but they have largely been neglected in postcolonial and literary studies To remedy this oversight this monograph draws together four areas of study it brings debates in religious and postsecular studies to bear on African literatures and postcolonial studies The focus of this interdisciplinary study is to understand how postsecular negotiations manifest in postcolonial African settings and how they are represented and registered in fiction Through this focus this book reveals how African and African diasporic authors radically disrupt the epistemological and ontological modalities of globalized literary production often characterized as secular and imagine alternatives which incorporate the sacred into a postsecular world

The Postcolonial Studies Dictionary Pramod K. Nayar,2015-06-22 This new Dictionary features a thoughtfully collated collection of over 150 jargon free definitions of key terms and concepts in postcolonial theory Features a brief introduction to postcolonial theory and a list of suggested further reading that includes the texts in which many of these terms originated Each entry includes the origins of the term where traceable a detailed explanation of its perceived meaning and examples of the term s use in literary cultural texts Incorporates terms and concepts from multiple disciplines including anthropology literary studies science economics globalization studies politics and philosophy Provides an ideal companion text to the forthcoming Postcolonial Studies An Anthology which is also edited by Pramod K Nayar a highly respected authority in the field

The Ethics of Representation in Literature, Art, and Journalism Caroline Rooney,Rita Sakr,2013-11-07 This transnational collection of essays interviews and creative pieces on the 1982 Siege of Beirut explores literary representations of the siege by a diverse set of writers alongside journalism and other media including film and art The book investigates and promotes an awareness of an ethics of representation on questions of extreme emotional investment comparing representations of the siege to representations of other traumatic events visiting responses from those of different cultural backgrounds to the same event and considering implications with respect to comparative approaches Chapters explore how literature journalism and art contribute to overcoming the dangers of forgetting and denial memorial excess and fundamentalism the radicalization of violence and the complete breakdown of trust on international levels asking how they challenge geopolitical intellectual and psychological states of siege and instead promote awareness acknowledgement mourning and justice across divided communities The book extends the use of postcolonial methodologies affiliated with history international relations and psychoanalysis memory trauma to Middle Eastern studies and visits the siege s effect on different forms of memory and memorialization selective memory trauma gaps and fissures in historical accounts recording of eyewitness reports and artistic re imaginings and realizations of alternative archives

The Bible and Literature: The Basics Norman W. Jones, 2015-11-19 The Bible and Literature The Basics provides an interpretive framework for understanding the significance of biblical allusions in literature even for readers who have little prior knowledge of the Bible In doing so it surveys the Bible s influence on a broad range of English American and other Anglophone literatures from a variety of historical periods It also offers a greatest hits tour of the Bible focuses as much on 20th and 21st century literatures as on earlier periods addresses the Bible s relevance to contemporary issues in literary criticism such as poststructuralist postcolonial feminist queer and narrative theories includes discussion questions for each chapter and annotated suggestions for further reading This book explains why readers need a basic knowledge of the Bible in order to understand and appreciate key aspects of Anglophone literary traditions undergraduate and graduate students and general readers studying all aspects of the subject Postcolonial Youth in Contemporary British Fiction ,2021-07-19 The concepts of youth and the postcolonial both inhabit a liminal locus where new ways of being in the world are rehearsed and struggle for recognition against the impositions of dominant power structures Departing from this premise the present volume focuses on the experience of postcolonial youngsters in contemporary Britain as rendered in fiction thus envisioning the postcolonial as a site of fruitful and potentially transformative friction between different identitary variables or sociocultural interpellations In so doing this volume provides varied evidence of the ability of literature and of the short story genre in particular to represent and swiftly respond to a rapidly changing world as well as to the new socio cultural realities and conflicts affecting our current global order and the generations to come Contributors are Isabel M Andr s Cuevas Isabel Carrera Su rez Claire Chambers Blanka Grzegorzczak Bettina Jansen Indrani Karmakar Carmen Lara Rallo Laura Mar a Lojo Rodr guez Noem Pereira Ares G rald Pr her Susanne Reichl Carla Rodr guez Gonz lez Jorge Sacido Romero Karima Thomas and Laura Torres Z iga The Routledge Handbook of Postsecularity Justin Beaumont,2018-10-26 The Routledge Handbook of Postsecularity offers an internationally significant and comprehensive interdisciplinary collection which provides a series of critical reviews of the current state of the art and future trends in philosophical theoretical and conceptual terms The volume likewise presents a range of empirical knowledges and engagements with postsecularity A critical yet sympathetic dialogue across disciplinary divides in an international context ensures that the volume covers a wide and interrelated intellectual and geographical scope The editor s introduction with Klaus Eder offers a robust foundation for the volume setting out the central aims and objectives the rationale for the contributions and an outline of the structure Thorny issues of normativity and empirical challenges are highlighted for the reader The handbook comprises four interrelated sections Part I Philosophical meditations discusses postsecularity from philosophical standpoints and Part II Theological perspectives presents contributions from a variety of theological viewpoints Part III Theory space social relations contains pieces from geography planning sociology and religious studies that delve into theoretically informed empirical implications of postsecularity Part IV Political and social engagement offers chapters that emphasize the political and social implications of the debate In the Afterword Eduardo Mendieta joins the editor to reflect on the notion of reflexive secularization across the volume as a whole alluding to new lines of inquiry The handbook is an invaluable guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and a key reference for students and scholars of human geography sociology political science applied philosophy urban and public theology planning and urban studies Global Failure and World Literature Karen Borg Cardona,2023-10-24 While the contemporary era has witnessed a series of spectacular failures with severe and widespread global consequences failure is still broadly understood on an individual level while its broader causes and consequences receive little attention This book reconceptualises failure as a method for characterising and critiquing systems and institutions on both a global and a local level It defines global failure as comprising global inequality economic crisis and ecological disaster and as a condition which informs and is informed by localised failure It examines the negotiation between global and local failure in narratives of failed quests by four contemporary authors Cormac McCarthy Julia Kristeva Michael Ondaatje and Basma Abdel Aziz As a genre the quest narrative is associated with the idea of hard won success The failed quest narrative or the narrative of the failed quest is therefore the ideal vehicle through which to examine the socio political and institutional conditions of failure Primarily a contribution to the field of world literature this book is also relevant to those with an interest in the contemporary novel failure studies and the quest narrative

This book explores the hopeful possibility that emerging geographies of postsecularity are able to contribute significantly to the understanding of how common life may be shared and how caring for the common goods of social justice well being equality solidarity and respect for difference may be imagined and practiced Drawing on recent geographic theory to recalibrate ideas of the postsecular public sphere the authors develop the case for postsecularity as a condition of being that is characterised by practices of receptive generosity rapprochement between religious and secular ethics and a hopeful re enchantment and re shaping of desire towards common life The authors highlight the contested formation of ethical subjectivity under neoliberalism and the emergence of postsecularity within this process as an ethically attuned politics which changes relations between religion and secularity and animates novel hopeful imaginations subjectivities and praxes as alternatives to neoliberal norms The spaces and subjectivities of emergent postsecularity are examined through a series of innovative case studies including food banks drug and alcohol treatment refugee humanitarian activism in Calais homeless participatory art projects community responses to the Christchurch earthquakes in New Zealand amongst others The book also traces the global conditions for postsecularity beyond the Western and predominantly Christian secular nexus of engagement This is a valuable resource for students in several academic disciplines including geography sociology politics religious studies international development and anthropology It will be of great interest to secular and faith based practitioners working in religion spirituality politics or more widely in public policy urban planning and community development

Music, Education, and Religion Alexis Anja Kallio, Philip Alpers, Heidi Westerlund, 2019-09-20 Essays examining the role of religion in music education from a variety of perspectives Music Education and Religion Intersections and Entanglements explores the critical role that religion can play in formal and informal music education As in broader educational studies research in music education has tended to sidestep the religious dimensions of teaching and learning often reflecting common assumptions of secularity in contemporary schooling in many parts of the world This book considers the ways in which the forces of religion and belief construct and complicate the values and practices of music education including teacher education curriculum texts and teaching repertoires The contributors to this volume embrace a range of perspectives from a variety of disciplines examining religious agnostic skeptical and atheistic points of view Music Education and Religion is a valuable resource for all music teachers and scholars in related fields interrogating the sociocultural and epistemological underpinnings of music repertoires and global educational practices The book serves as a study volume for all those who are active in this field and provides both systematic reflections and useful empirical studies A further impressive feature is the regional and religious breadth of the content presented and examined Wolfgang W M ller Reading Religion

British Literature in Transition, 1980-2000 Eileen Pollard, Berthold Schoene, 2018-12-20 The literature of twentieth century Britain's final twenty years represents a crash course in transitional history In the aftermath of the 1970s the nation's hopes of becoming more efficient were high leading to the fundamental domestic shake up that was Margaret Thatcher's neoliberal revolution 1979-90 Following the end of the Cold War Europe was undergoing radical rejuvenation while the world as a whole began to thrive on new levels of connectivity and proximity brought through rapid advances in communication technology Later in the 1990s Britons were asked to countenance not only internal devolution but also the crystallisation of a brand new European and global order This volume shows how British literature recorded contemporaneous historical change It traces the emergence and evolution of literary trends as well as enduring transitional shifts in genre tone style and thematic preoccupation

Reading the Abrahamic Faiths Emma Mason, 2014-12-18 Rethinking religion and literature in a series of chapters by leading international scholars Reading the Abrahamic Faiths opens up a dialogue between Jewish Christian Islamic and Post Secular literary cultures Literary studies has absorbed religion as another interdisciplinary mode of inquiry without always attending to its multifaceted potential to question ideologically neutral readings of culture belief emotion politics and inequality In response Reading the Abrahamic Faiths contributes to a reevaluation of the nexus between religion and literature that is socially affectively and materially determined in its sensitivity to the expression of belief Each section Judaism Christianity Islam and Post Secularism is introduced by a specialist in these respective areas to introduce the critical readings of the texts and discourses that follow

Popular Culture in the Middle East and North Africa Walid El Hamamsy, Mounira Soliman, 2013 This book explores the body and the production process of popular culture in and on the Middle East and North Africa Turkey and Iran in the first decade of the 21st century and up to the current historical moment Essays consider gender racial political and cultural issues in film cartoons music dance photo tattoos graphic novels fiction and advertisements Contributors to the volume span an array of specializations ranging across literary postcolonial gender media and Middle Eastern studies and contextualize their views within a larger historical and political moment analyzing the emergence of a popular expression in the Middle East and North Africa region in recent years and drawing conclusions pertaining to the direction of popular culture within a geopolitical context The importance of this book lies in presenting a fresh perspective on popular culture combining media that are not often combined and offering a topical examination of recent popular production aiming to counter stereotypical representations of Islamophobia and otherness by bringing together the perspectives of scholars from different cultural backgrounds and disciplines The collection shows that popular culture can effect changes and alter perceptions and stereotypes constituting an area where people of different ethnicities genders and orientations can find common grounds for expression and connection

World Christianity, Urbanization and Identity, 2021-02-09 World Christianity Urbanization and Identity argues that urban centers particularly the largest cities do not only offer places for people to live shop and seek entertainment but deeply shape people s ethics behavior sense of justice and how they learn to become human Given that religious participation and institutions are vital to individual and communal life particularly in urban centers this interdisciplinary volume seeks to provide insights into the interaction between urban change religious formation and practice and to understand how these shape individual and group identities in a world that is increasingly urban World Christianity Urbanization and Identity is part of the multi volume series World Christianity and Public Religion The series seeks to become a platform for intercultural and intergenerational dialogue and to facilitate opportunities for interaction between scholars across the Global South and those in other parts of the world

Empathy and the Phantasmic in Ethnic American Trauma Narratives Stella Setka, 2020-05-19 Empathy and the Phantasmic in Ethnic American Trauma Narratives examines a burgeoning genre of ethnic American literature called phantasmic trauma narratives which use culturally specific modes of the supernatural to connect readers to historical traumas such as slavery and genocide Drawing on trauma theory and using an ethnic studies methodology this book shows how phantasmic novels and films present historical trauma in ways that seek to invite reader viewer empathy about the cultural groups represented In so doing the author argues that these texts also provide models of interracial alliances to encourage contemporary cross cultural engagement as a restorative response to historical traumas Further the author examines how these narratives function as sites of cultural memory that provide a critical purchase on the enormity of enslavement genocide and dispossession
