The Prisoner of Heaven Carlos Ruiz Zafon, 2012-07-10 A deep and mysterious novel full of people that feel real An enthralling read and a must have for your library Zafon focuses on the emotion of the reader and doesn't let go Seattle Post Intelligencer Internationally acclaimed New York Times bestselling author Carlos Ruiz Zafon creates a rich labyrinthine tale of love literature passion and revenge set in a dark gothic Barcelona in which the heroes of The Shadow of the Wind and The Angel's Game must contend with a nemesis that threatens to destroy them Barcelona 1957 It is Christmas and Daniel Sempere and his wife Bea have much to celebrate They have a beautiful new baby son named Julián and their close friend Fermín Romero de Torres is about to be wed But their joy is eclipsed when a mysterious stranger visits the Sempere bookshop and threatens to divulge a terrible secret that has been buried for two decades in the city's dark past His appearance plunges Fermín and Daniel into a dangerous adventure that will take them back to the 1940s and the early days of Franco's dictatorship The terrifying events of that time launch them on a search for the truth that will put into peril everything they love and will ultimately transform their lives

Out of This World Rachel S. Cordasco, 2021-12-28 The twenty first century has witnessed an explosion of speculative fiction in translation SFT Rachel Cordasco examines speculative fiction published in English translation since 1960 ranging from Soviet era fiction to the Arabic language dystopias that emerged following the Iraq War Individual chapters on SFT from Korean Czech Finnish and eleven other source languages feature an introduction by an expert in the language's speculative fiction tradition and its present day output Cordasco then breaks down each chapter by subgenre including science fiction fantasy and horror to guide readers toward the kinds of works that most interest them Her discussion of available SFT stands alongside an analysis of how various subgenres emerged and developed in a given language She also examines the reasons a given subgenre has been translated into English An informative and one of a kind guide Out of This World offers readers and scholars alike a tour of speculative fiction's new globalized era

Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke Braber, Jeroen Dera, Jos Joosten, Maarten Steenmeijer, 2025-10-01 For many literature and marketing are considered opposite phenomena This book discusses cases in which the two are closely connected It argues that literature is subject to the same mechanisms as other commercial products our experience of literary texts is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors From the early modern period onwards literary authors and their texts are constantly branded and have been both the object and the trailblazer of a complex marketing process The authors of this volume analyze this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions Branding Books Across the Ages seeks to show how literary scholars understand branding a phenomenon that has long been intertwined with literature
