Mediacology Antonio Lopez, 2008 Traditional media literacy models are mostly left brained inherited from the legacy of alphabetic literacy the Gutenberg press revolution and industrial mass media production New digital media radically alter the environment their nonlinear multisensory field like properties are more right brain oriented Consequently rather than focus exclusively on deconstructing the products of design objects such as an advertisement text digital learning should respond to the design of the system itself including cultural and cognitive bias Mediacology proposes a design for pattern approach called media permaculture which restructures media literacy to be in sync with new media practices connected with sustainability and the perceptual functions of the right brain hemisphere In the same way that permaculture approaches gardening by establishing the natural parameters of its ecological niche media permaculture explores the individual s mediacological niche in the context of knowledge communities By applying bioregional thinking to the symbolic order media permaculture redresses the standard one size fits all literacy model by taking into account diverse cognitive strategies and emerging convergence media practices Antonio Lopez applies a practical knowledge of alternative media cross cultural communication and ecology to build a meaningful theory of media education The Everyday Advocate Ross

Murray, 2023-05-09 As Christians we are called and anointed to bring good news to the poor release to the captives and freedom to the oppressed In The Everyday Advocate Ross Murray helps Christians explore our individual callings to justice and start taking practical steps to live that out The Everyday Advocate is for the layperson who feels overwhelmed by the world s troubles and helpless to address them It is for the person who goes to church hears the gospel seeks to apply it to their lives and yearns to be connected to or create a community that amplifies their voice and actions It is also for pastors and faith leaders who want to help people think through their calling to advocacy and help connect them with the communities that can use their gifts and talents Murray builds on two questions Where is God And what are we called to do Viewing every action and phenomenon as theological he stakes out values and shows readers how to work toward those values He also distinguishes between direct service and cultural change discussing the balance between them and acknowledging both are needed Drawing on his own experience and exercising his pastoral spirit Murray encourages readers to discern their own call to advocacy learn to identify injustices that still reign and respond faithfully by incorporating big and small actions into their everyday lives From Pulpit to Public Square Richard W.
