Description :

A literary tour de force about the making of a film and representation from a master of the memoir form. For Nick Flynn, that game we all play—the who-would-play-you-in-the-movie-of-your-life game—has been resolved. The Reenactments chronicles the surreal experience of being on set during the making of the film Being Flynn, from his best-selling memoir Another Bullshit Night in Suck City, and watching the central events of his life reenacted: his father's long run of homelessness and his mother's suicide.

The Reenactments Nick Flynn, 2012-12-31 A literary tour de force about the making of a film and representation from a master of the memoir form For Nick Flynn that game we all play the who would play you in the movie of your life game has been resolved The Reenactments chronicles the surreal experience of being on set during the making of the film Being Flynn from his best selling memoir Another Bullshit Night in Suck City and watching the central events of his life reenacted his father's long run of homelessness and his mother's suicide Flynn tells the story of Robert De Niro's first meeting with his real father in Boston and of watching Julianne Moore attempt to throw herself into the sea The result is a mesmerizingly sharp edged and kaleidoscopic literary tour de force as well as a compelling argument about consciousness representation and grief

The Reenactments Nick Flynn, 2013 Nick Flynn chronicles the surreal experience of being on set during the making of the film Being Flynn from his best selling memoir Another Bullshit Night in Suck City and watching the central events of his life reenacted his father's long run of homelessness and his mother's suicide

Postirony Lukas Hoffmann, 2016-10-15 What is postirony Foremost it is a response to the ironic zeitgeist Moreover it is the key to understanding a specific form of literature The contemporary reader is familiar with and unfortunately used to postmodernism's ironic self reflexive

metafiction Authors like David Foster Wallace and Dave Eggers chose a different path Despite the reign of contemporary irony they strive to reach the reader on a level beyond cognitively as well as emotionally they claim to be sincere and true

Focusing largely on nonfiction by said authors Lukas Hoffmann explores the means the texts use to achieve something new namely a new form of sincerity

De Niro Shawn Levy, 2015-10-27 REMARKABLE BIOGRAPHY OF AN ICON There's little debate that Robert De Niro is one of the greatest screen actors of his generation perhaps of all time if not in fact the greatest His work particularly in the first 20 years of his career is unparalleled Mean Streets the Godfather Part II Taxi Driver the Deer Hunter and Raging Bull all dazzled moviegoers and critics alike displaying a talent the likes of which had rarely if ever been seen De Niro became known for his deep involvement in his characters assuming that role completely into his own life resulting in extraordinary chameleonic performances Yet little is known about the off screen De Niro he is an intensely private man whose rare public appearances are often marked by inarticulateness and palpable awkwardness It can be almost painful to watch at times in powerful contrast to his confident movie personae In this elegant and compelling biography bestselling writer Shawn Levy writes of these many De Niro's the characters and the man seeking to understand the evolution of an actor who once dove deeply into his roles as if to hide his inner nature and who now seemingly avoids acting challenges taking roles which make few apparent demands on his overwhelming talent Following De Niro's roots as the child of artists his father the abstract painter Robert De Niro Sr was widely celebrated who encouraged him from an early age to be independent of vision and spirit to his intense schooling as an actor the rise of his career his marriages his life as a father restaurateur and businessman and of course his current movie career Levy has written a biography that reads like a novel about a character whose inner turmoil takes him to heights of artistry His many friendships with the likes of Martin Scorsese Meryl Streep Harvey Keitel Shelley Winters Francis Ford Coppola among many others are woven into this extraordinary portrait of DeNiro the man and the artist also adding a depth of understanding not before seen Levy has had unprecedented access to De Niro s personal research and production materials creating a new impression of the effort that went into the actor s legendary performances The insights gained from DeNiro s intense working habits shed new perspective on DeNiro s thinking and portrayals and are wonderful to read Levy also spoke to De Niro s collaborators and friends to depict De Niro s transition from an ambitious young man to a transfixing and enigmatic artist and cultural figure Shawn Levy has written a truly engaging insightful and entertaining portrait of one of the most wonderful film artists of our time a book that is worthy of such a great talent

The Tangled Web of the Civil War and Reconstruction David Madden,2015-08-05 This unique collection of writings by the celebrated author David Madden provides a multitude of reflections on the Civil War and Reconstruction from nonfiction to fiction Included are Madden s examination of key works by historians James McPherson and Fletcher Pratt the story of the effort to simultaneously burn nine bridges by nine unionist guerrilla bands in the most complicated and coordinated guerrilla tactic of the war and rediscoveries of both classic and contemporary works of Civil War fiction from William Faulkner Joseph Stanley Pennell and more Alongside these essays are pieces from Madden s Civil War novel Sharpshooter which illustrate the interconnectedness of fiction and nonfiction This meshing of iconoclastic and controversial pieces includes varied perspectives on every aspect of the war and reconstruction from culture and civilian life to an imagining of Abraham Lincoln s critique of how historians have recorded the war and its aftermath By exploring this web of perception we can better understand the war and in turn shed greater light on the present and the future

Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain,Sarah Shotland,2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds

Memoirs of a Confederate Gentleman Thomas William Tear, 2011-05 When Thomas received two news clippings from his favorite aunt he never could have anticipated the historical odyssey that the obituary and the story about the sale of an antebellum plantation in Charleston South Carolina would take him on Intrigued by all things Civil War he travels to South Carolina to the estate sale and purchases a trunk in which he finds the diaries of Major Charles McGuire The diaries inspire him to write The Memoirs of a Confederate Gentleman Charles Everson McGuire was born into a world of peace and plenty Life for him and those he loved would promise only more of the same Upon his eighteenth birthday he is sent to England for his education and to learn the family textile manufacturing business As the years pass and war becomes inevitable the drums and bugles call from across the Atlantic Charles realizes that he must go home and confront the issues of states rights slavery and family obligations head on Upon his return Charles marries the beautiful and spirited Josephine St John He promises his new bride he will not join the conflict between the states but that promise is soon broken when the Confederacy convinces him that his help and resources are critical for victory But victory is not to be for the South The horror of war and the devastation of the major's homeland and his way of life lead him to question his faith and all that he has been taught Charles finds that he must pick up the pieces of his shattered life and build a new existence for him and those who depend on him But will he be able to start a fresh life in the new union Thomas William Tear lives in the quaint historic town of New Castle Delaware where he designs reproductions of historic clothing for Civil War reenactors He has written numerous short stories and information pamphlets Memoirs of a Confederate Gentleman is his first novel

After Visiting Friends Michael Hainey, 2013-02-19 Michael Hainey had just turned six when his uncle knocked on his family's back door one morning with the tragic news Bob Hainey Michael's father had been found dead near his car on Chicago's North Side of an apparent heart attack Thirty five years old a young assistant copy desk chief at the Chicago Sun Times Bob was a bright and shining star in the competitive hard living world of newspapers one that involved booze soaked nights that bled into dawn And then suddenly he was gone leaving behind a young widow two sons a fractured family and questions surrounding the mysterious nature of his death that would obsess Michael throughout adolescence and long into adulthood Finally roughly his father's age when he died and a seasoned reporter himself Michael set out to learn what happened that night Adapted from publisher testimonies from Abu Ghraib detainees passages from documentary films overheard conversations and scraps of poems and song only to reassemble with a gathering sonic force It s as if all the noise that fills our days were a storm yet at the center is a quiet place but to get there you must first pass through the storm with eyes wide open singing Each poem becomes a hallucinatory shifting experience through jump cut lyric persuasion and deadpan utterance This is an emotional resilient response to some of the essential issues of our day by one of America s riskiest and most innovative writers World War II Historical Reenactment in Poland Kamila Baraniecka-Olszewska,2021-10-21 This book explores the consequences of the latest political shifts in Central Eastern Europe the rise of right wing parties and among other things politics becoming more invested in history These phenomena coincide and overlap with the democratisation of history by turning the past into a hot topic persistently present in the public sphere and often evoking strong emotions Ethnographic research conducted in 2012 2016 focusing on how World War II reenactors experience the past serves as the basis to analyse the ways in which the group uses the widespread often institutionalised interest in history to on the one hand become involved in debates on World War II and the remembrance thereof and on the other to authentically experience this past The volume therefore analyses how physical the process of creating and experiencing grassroots visions of the past is and how these visions interact with the public discourse about the past Reenactors ability to marry the often contradictory orders of historical truth authenticity and representation is explored Moreover Baraniecka Olszewska analyses how the reenactors overcome various obstacles on their way towards authentic experiences performing history through their bodies The Cinema of Wang Bing Bruno Lessard,2023-11-02 Having made documentary films screened at the most prestigious film festivals in the West Chinese documentary filmmaker Wang Bing presents a unique case of independent filmmaking In The Cinema of Wang Bing Bruno Lessard examines the documentarian s most important films focusing on the two obsessions at the heart of his oeuvre the legacy of Maoist China in the present and the transformation of labor since China s entry into the market economy and how the crucial figures of survivor and worker are represented on screen Bruno Lessard argues that Wang Bing is a minjian grassroots intellectual whose films document the impact of Mao s Great Leap Forward on Chinese collective memory and register the repercussions of China s turn to neoliberalism on workers in the post Reform era Bringing together Chinese documentary studies and China studies the author shows how Wang Bing s practice reflects the minjian ethos when documenting the survivors of the Great Famine and those who have not benefitted from China s neoliberal policies from laid off workers to migrant workers The films discussed include some of Wang Bing s most celebrated works such as West of the Tracks and Dead Souls as well as neglected documentaries such as Coal Money and Bitter Money Bruno Lessard analyzes Wang Bing s documentary masterpieces through the twin lens of history and labor Incisively framing them as a sustained critical intervention in how China understands itself through the legacy of Maoism and Deng Xiaoping s neoliberal reform project The Cinema of Wang Bing makes me want to watch the films again Chris Berry King s College London Professor

Lessard offers an original and comprehensive study of Wang Bing's contribution to Chinese documentary as a mode of observation and reflection on some of the most crucial periods of China's recent and present history. I certainly felt that reading the films through a sociohistorical approach produced a more vibrant understanding of Wang Bing's oeuvre. Cecília Mello, University of São Paulo

Inheriting the War Laren McClung, 2017-11-07

Descendants of Vietnam veterans and refugees confront the aftermath of war and in verse and prose deliver another kind of war story. Fifty years after the Vietnam War, this anthology by descendants of Vietnam veterans and refugees—American Vietnamese, Vietnamese Diaspora, Hmong, Australian, and others—confronts war and its aftermath. What emerges is an affecting portrait of the effects of war and family, an intercultural generational dialogue on silence, memory, landscape, imagination, Agent Orange, displacement, postwar trauma, and the severe realities that are carried home. Including such acclaimed voices as Viet Thanh Nguyen, Karen Russell, Terrance Hayes, Suzan-Lori Parks, Nick Flynn, and Ocean Vuong, Inheriting the War enriches the discourse of the Vietnam War and provides a collective conversation that attempts to transcend the recursion of history. Each unique work in Inheriting the War embraces a collective that aims to engage through some daring and passionate truths calibrated by bravery. Yusef Komunyakaa from the foreword.
