A Short History of the Renaissance in Northern Europe Malcolm Vale, 2020-04-02 The concept of a Northern European Renaissance in the arts in thought and in more general culture north of the Alps often evokes the idea of a cultural transplant which was not indigenous to or rooted in the society from which it emerged Classic definitions of the European Renaissance during the 14th 15th and 16th centuries have often seen it as an Italian import of for example humanism and classical learning into the Gothic North There were certainly differences between North and South which have to be addressed not least in the development of the visual arts In this book Malcolm Vale argues for a Northern Renaissance which while cognisant of Italian developments had a life of its own expressed through such innovations as a rediscovery of pictorial space and representational realism and which displayed strong continuities with the indigenous cultures of northern Europe But it also contributed new movements and tendencies in thought the visual arts literature religious beliefs and the dissemination of knowledge which often stemmed from and built upon those continuities A Short History of the Renaissance in Northern Europe while in no way ignoring or diminishing the importance of the Greek and Roman legacy seeks other sources and different uses of classical antiquity for a rather different kind of Renaissance in the North

Lived Religion and the Long Reformation in Northern Europe c. 1300-1700 Raisa Maria Toivo, Sari Katajala-Peltomaa, 2016-09-27 Lived Religion and the Long Reformation in Northern Europe puts Reformation in a daily life context using lived religion as a conceptual and methodological tool exploring how people lived out their religion in their mundane toils and how religion created a performative space for them This collection reinvestigates the character of the Reformation in an area that later became the heartlands of Lutheranism The way people lived their religion was intricately linked with questions of the value of individual experience communal cohesion and interaction During the late Middle Ages and Early Modern Era religious certainty was replaced by the experience of doubt and hesitation Negotiations on and between various social levels manifest the needs aspirations and resistance behind the religious change Contributors include Kaarlo Arffman Jussi Hanska Miia Ij s Sari Katajala Peltomaa Jenni Kuuliala Marko Lamberg Jason Lavery Maija Ojala P i v i R is nen Schr der Raisa Maria Toivo
