negotiate constructive resolutions in the face of conflicts of interest Negotiation is a form of communication that requires more than just language ability It requires being able to listen to and communicate with others within a milieu of diverse language abilities academic professional and cultural backgrounds in an increasingly global society Added to this is the reality that the majority of English spoken globally is English as a Lingua Franca ELF Model United Nations MUN simulations are uniquely positioned to help students develop their language ability and their global competencies as well as being ideal opportunities for participants to experience ELF in an intensely communicative context A common goal in MUN simulations is to prepare students to solve complex problems that are associated with living in a technological competitive and globally connected world This volume provides researchers negotiation practitioners and language teachers with insights and best practices in MUN event and delegate preparation Application of these best practices will significantly enrich the pedagogic environments designed for MUN delegates especially in ELF contexts

Witnessing to Christ Today Daryl M. Balia, Kirsteen Kim, 2010 The Centenary of the World Missionary Conference held in Edinburgh in 1910 is a suggestive moment for many people seeking direction for Christian mission in the twenty first century Since 2005 an international group has worked collaboratively to develop an intercontinental and multid denominational project now known as Edinburgh 2010 and based at New College University of Edinburgh Essential to the work of the Edinburgh 1910 Conference and of abiding value were the findings of the eight think tanks or commissions These inspired the idea of a new round of collaborative reflection on Christian mission but now focused on nine themes identified as being key to mission in the twenty first century The study process is intended to contribute from a research perspective to the aim of Edinburgh 2010 witnessing together to Christ in the twenty first century and to the development of a new vision in terms of God's purposes for creation in Christ and a renewed spirituality and mission ethos in the life of churches worldwide Witnessing to Christ Today contains a summary of what has been achieved through the study process up to the end of 2009 and forms the preparatory volume for the centenary conference to be held in Edinburgh on 2-6 June 2010 There the material will be subjected to rigorous critique from various transversal perspectives and engaged with by church and mission delegates from around the world

The Man-Not Tommy J. Curry, 2017-07 The Before Columbus Foundation 2018 Winner of the AMERICAN BOOK AWARD Tommy J Curry's provocative book The Man-Not is a justification for Black Male Studies He posits that we should conceptualize the Black male as a victim oppressed by his sex The Man-Not therefore is a corrective of sorts offering a concept of Black males that could challenge the existing accounts of Black men and boys desiring the power of white men who oppress them that has been proliferated throughout academic research across disciplines Curry argues that Black men struggle with death and suicide as well as abuse and rape and their gendered existence deserves study and theorization This book offers intellectual historical sociological and psychological evidence that the analysis of patriarchy offered by mainstream feminism including Black feminism does not yet fully understand the role that homoeroticism sexual violence and vulnerability play in the deaths and lives of Black males Curry challenges how we think of and perceive the conditions that actually affect all Black males
