pass the man until he sees that the man has lifted his head and is looking towards him Simon debates what to do in his mind and feels ashamed for his disregard and heads back to help the man Simon takes off his cloth coat and wraps it around the stranger He also gives him the extra pair of boots he was carrying He aids him as they both walk toward Simon's home Though they walk together side by side the stranger barely speaks and when Simon asks how he was left in that situation the only answers the man would give are I cannot tell and God has punished me Meanwhile Simon's wife Matryona debates whether or not to bake more bread for the night's meal so that there is enough for the following morning's breakfast She decides that the loaf of bread that they have left would be ample enough to last until the next morning As she sees Simon approaching the door she is angered to see him with a strange man who is wrapped in Simon's clothing Matryona immediately expresses her displeasure with Simon accusing him and his strange companion to be drunkards and harassing Simon for not returning with the sheep skin needed to make a new coat Once the tension settles down she bids that the stranger sit down and have dinner with them After seeing the stranger take bites at the bread she placed for him on his plate she begins to feel pity and shows so in her face When the stranger notices this his grim expression lights up immediately and he smiles for one brief moment After hearing the story from the stranger of how Simon had kindly robed the stranger after seeing him in his naked state Matryona grabs more of Simon's old clothing and gives it to the stranger
