Whitegirl Kate Manning, 2011-07-06 I was not always a white girl I used to be just Charlotte A person named Charlotte Halsey But when I met Milo when I fell in love with him I became White like a lit light bulb is white In the mirror there is my skin the color of sand hair the color of butter eyes blue as seawater Just so bleached white I am practically clear Milo is black what they call Black only not to me To me he has mostly been just Milo They say lovers can find each other just by using the sense of smell that we are all really animals in that way no different from dogs or deer I know it s true I could find Milo blind in a room of men the smell of him like pine trees in a snowy wind I could pick him out just by the slow rising of his breath while he slept So no until this happened up to the time of the assault he was not black not to me He was Milo He was my husband from Whitegirl As Kate Manning s riveting debut novel begins a thirty five year old white woman lies secluded in her home overlooking the Pacific unable to speak recovering from a violent assault that has nearly taken her life Her husband a famous black actor is in jail for the crime Is he guilty She s not sure She remembers nothing of the assault Longing for answers she sifts through the history of their life together trying to determine how two people once so in love might find themselves so ruined Charlotte Halsey and Milo Robicheaux met briefly in college in the 1970s where she was a beautiful troubled girl hungry for freedom and he was the star athlete with Olympic dreams

Years later when she is a successful model and he a famous sports hero turned actor their paths cross again in New York City and they fall in love But their marriage is soon fraught with tension As Milo s celebrity skyrockets motherhood ends Charlotte s career leaving her increasingly alienated from the man she believed she knew so well Jealousy and mistrust grow between them even as they strive to build a life together against increasing odds A poignant anatomy of a marriage undone by the pressure of fame and the struggle for identity Whitegirl is the arresting debut of a significant new voice in contemporary fiction

When he comes home he brings with him the lessons he learned and the memories he made. He knows that his house is now full of stories and events that will help him plan trips in the future. A Mouse's Magical Journey shows us that life's real magic isn't in the special places we go but in the guts, friends, and self-confidence we gain along the way. Milo's story is a great way to remind us to accept our own paths, enjoy the beauty of nature, and work hard to reach our goals.

How the story started: Milo, a curious mouse who liked to try new things, used to live in a quiet little hole under a big oak tree. Milo's mind was always racing with ideas, and his heart was full of dreams. Milo's small house under the big oak tree had always been a warm and safe place for him, but his spirit of adventure made him want more. Outside the safe walls of his burrow, he dreamed of wide landscapes, strange animals, and exciting experiences. The outside world drew him in with its undiscovered places and wonders. Every day he would look at the horizon and think about the sights and sounds he would soon see and hear. His longing grew greater with every passing second. Milo would often spend hours up in the tree, listening to the wise old owl tell stories. The owl told the mouse stories about faraway places, strange creatures, and exciting adventures. Milo's heart was set on fire by these stories, which gave him a burning desire to learn and find out more. He dreamed of going on adventures through beautiful forests, up high mountains, and across huge seas. His mind would come up with amazing stories about animals that could talk, fairies, and finding secret treasures deep inside old ruins. His heart ached with the need to see these things for himself. Milo knew that one day he would die. He thought that fate would give him the chance to go on a wonderful journey. He was really looking forward to that day. He spent his evenings sitting on a windowsill and staring at the stars as if they were the key to his dreams. When he thought about the adventures he could have in the great unknown, his heart would beat faster. The mouse's small home became both a source of comfort and a source of worry. Even though he liked how warm and safe it made him feel, he couldn't help but feel hemmed in. The tight walls were getting in their way, and the hole that used to be his safe place had turned into a prison. He wanted to stretch his hands, get some fresh air, and feel the grass under his feet. Milo's desire to learn about the world got stronger every day, which made him more creative and determined. He spent hours working on his feelings and instincts so that he would be ready for his next trip. He would climb the tree limbs to get better at moving quickly and using his hands. He would look at maps and spend a lot of time following the winding roads that led to new and interesting places. His travels gave him the energy to do everything he did. As the seasons changed, Milo could feel that his big trip was coming up. The air seemed to buzz with a strange kind of energy, and it carried hints of what could happen. It was as if the whole universe had worked together to make his dreams come true and set the stage for his amazing journey. Milo looked forward to the day when he would no longer live in his tiny house and the whole world would be his playground. He knew his chance to go on a big adventure was coming up, and he couldn't wait to spread his tiny wings and fly into the great unknown. Milo woke up from a warm nap on a beautiful morning as the sun's golden rays shone through the oak tree's leaves. As he stretched and rubbed his tired eyes, he couldn't believe what he saw. Just outside his door, a shining golden key was hidden between the velvety petals of a flower that was growing Milo's heart skipped a beat as he ran for the key his small paws shivering with joy He carefully picked it up and felt its weight in his paw The key sparkled and shone and the early light made a gold dance on it Milo's whiskers twitched in wonder as he tried to figure out where this mysterious key came from and what secrets it held He knew that this wasn't just any old key It had a feeling of magic and wonder that caught his attention Milo's mind raced as he thought about all the things he could do once he got through the mysterious gate Milo thought about where the key came from while his heartbeat in his chest Who did he get it from Why is this happening Was it a gift from a wise old owl or a word from the fairies in the woods Milo's mind was full of questions but he knew one thing for sure he had been chosen for something amazing
