What Would Fiona Do:

The Intercultural Exeter Couples Model Janet Reibstein, Reenee Singh, 2020-12-02 Increase the efficacy of your treatment interventions in intercultural couples therapy The Intercultural Exeter Couples Model Making Connections for a Divided World Through Systemic Behavioral Therapy provides practitioners with a thorough guide to effectively treating intercultural couples The book consists of a systematic effort to translate systemic ideas that take into account a cultural perspective into a highly useable and practical form The Intercultural Exeter Couples Model also attempts to marry two often distinct forms of practice the systemic and the behavioral Both approaches have much to contribute to effective couples counselling but they are often theoretically siloed This book demonstrates the value of using both approaches simultaneously This book provides concrete and practical strategies for implementing systemic and behavioral approaches to intercultural couples therapy in a manner consistent with clinical best practice Rather than ignoring the significant and complex impacts that differing cultures can have on a relationship The Intercultural Exeter Couple Model puts those differences front and center encouraging the therapist to engage with the cultural mismatch that can be at the core of many couples ongoing friction The book's chapters tackle both the model itself and a variety of interventions covering topics including Teaching couples how to break patterns and prepare them to establish new ones Training couples to communicate effectively Establishing new modes of behavior in couples An explanation of empathic bridging maneuvers A description of the use of life space explorations Perfect for clinicians students and professors interested in or practicing in the field of couples therapy The Intercultural Exeter Couples Model provides readers with an in depth exploration of an increasingly important model of couples therapy and describes in painstaking detail the interventions necessary to achieve positive patient outcomes

Forty Shades of Illusion Babs L. Murphy, 2025-08-14 In this fourth book in the series about Nora Duffy her family and her friends Forty Shades of Illusion weaves the family's attempts to distinguish between reality and illusion as they once again travel to her Irish castle on the southwestern coast of Ireland Mayhem and murder follow them when Nora's old nemesis relentlessly hunts her down so that he can kill her and anyone else who stands in his way The family visits some of the most beautiful cities in the world and are supported during their trials by their police friends from Chicago California Ireland Rome Assisi and Paris In each city they visit the family makes interesting new friends and business contacts Nora and her father Dr Michael Duffy a renowned cardiologist strive to finish their second book about the continuing challenges that the world faces after the COVID pandemic Nora is a petite pediatric brain surgeon in Chicago while her handsome husband Tommy Barry is an international lawyer who continues to think of her as his Irish warrior princess who has inherited fairy fey abilities They now have a precocious daughter Emily who is seven years old and is a budding artist and musician Their three year old son Conor has an irrepressible personality and loves to spring into gymnastic feats at a moment's notice wherever they are Countering the evil that they encounter three lovely weddings of relatives and friends occur and give them some well needed entertainment and joy Nora is delighted that some of the newer members of the staff at Duffy Hall Castle play important roles in bringing important discoveries to light They find the bones of a young child from the 1500s in a locked chest on the fourth floor of the castle along with a cache of important paintings that she created It seems probable that Polly was a victim of much abuse when she was alive and is now a ghost The Conneelley leprechaun clan who live amidst the rocks at the nearby Coral Beach once again provide inspiration and protection to the big people Nora and Tom try to maintain a sense of balance amidst this chaos and they depend on each other for strength and support The many activities of their large families provide relief for their stress They believe that God is in charge and they ask him for his help every step along the way of their interesting but traumatic journey

Migration and Return in Modern African Literature Ernest Cole,2025 Using close readings of nine novels by African or African descended novelists this book examines three phases of African migration departure disillusionment and the impulse to return The experiences of African migrants in the diaspora are deeply inflected by the condition of living as Black bodies in white spaces In this work author Ernest Cole examines closely the narratives of migration and return presented in nine powerful novels by authors who include Chimamanda Adichie NoViolet Bulawayo Teju Cole and others The novels reveal a reversal of expectations that migrants from Africa experience upon arrival in the West a reversal prompted in part by the racial prejudice they are confronted with as Black individuals As the author notes the novels also illustrate the desire to return to the homeland as a better alternative to the precarious life in the West even though such a move is not without its complications The study is divided into three parts with seven chapters The first two chapters deal with the reasons for the departure of migrants from the continent the next two depict the experiences of migrants in the West and the last three focus on contemplations of the return journey home Collectively the chapters lay out three phases in the migration process departure from home disillusionment in the West and return to the country of origin Within this framework the book uses displacement and dislocation to examine a host of themes social alienation alterity and the precarity of Africans in the diaspora

The Top Books of the Year What Would Fiona Do The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. What Would Fiona Do : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. What Would Fiona Do : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
