Budd, 2010-07-27 This is an examination of the interactions between people of different cultures as portrayed in relatively modern commonly available American and European films The cinema is a desirable medium through which to show cultural differences because it vividly portrays settings actions and emotions all of which greatly influence viewers perceptions Films showing relations of the United States north and south Japan China India Asia and Africa meeting the West the clash between American Indians and white settlers various other intercultural contrasts multicultural voices in film and the connection between popular film and intercultural studies all are examined in this work Each chapter concludes with a filmography New Pencil Points Eugene Clute, Russell Fenimore Whitehead, Kenneth Reid, Elizabeth L. Cleaver, 1924 Reading Architecture and Culture Adam Sharr, 2012-11-12 Architecture displays the values involved in its inhabitation construction procurement and design It traces the thinking of the individuals who have participated in it their relationships and their involvement in the cultures where they lived and worked In this way buildings their details and the documents used to make them can be read closely for cultural insights Introducing the idea of reading buildings as cultural artefacts this book presents perceptive readings by eminent writers which demonstrate the power of this approach The chapters show that close readings of architecture and its materials can test commonplace assumptions help architects to appreciate the contexts in which they work and indicate ways to think more astutely about design The readings collected in this innovative and accessible book address buildings specifications and photographs They range in time from the fifteenth century examining the only surviving drawing made by Leon Battista Alberti to the recent past projects completed by Norman Foster in 2006 and Herzog and De Meuron in 2008 They range geographically from France to Puerto Rico to Kazakhstan and they range in fame from buildings celebrated by critics to house extensions and motorway service areas Taken together these essays demonstrate important research methods which yield powerful insights for designers critics and historians and lessons for students Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) of American building technologies architectural standards construction methods and planning paradigms Using previously undocumented examples and illustrations he shows how steel frame manufacturers shipped their products abroad enabling the erection of American style skyscrapers worldwide by 1900 and how this phase was followed by similar initiatives by companies manufacturing concrete components

Keep Jenny Haysom, 2024-10-01 A timely tale of ownership and loss loneliness and connection and a meditation on all the stuff in our lives Home staging is an art of erasure But in some cases no matter how much clutter you remove or how many coats of white paint you apply stains bleed through and memories rise from the walls like ghosts Harriet an elderly poet whose eccentricities have been compounded by years of living alone must sell her beloved house Having been recently diagnosed with dementia she is being moved into a care facility against her wishes When staggers Eleanor and Jacob are hired for the job they quickly find themselves immersed in Harriet s brimming and mysterious world but as they struggle to help her their own lives are unravelling Keep is a meditation on all the stuff in our lives from the singular handcrafted artifact to indelible mass produced plastics As Jenny Haysom excavates the material of our domestic spaces she centres the people within them and celebrates the power of memory even when it falters

Culture Meets Architecture Linghan Ji, 2014 Urban culture is each city s image to visitors and a crucial part in urban construction When the entire world is confronted with considerable globalisation and urbanisation the city which neglects either international impact or local development would be in a dilemma in its cultural development This thesis focuses on the capital of China Beijing which is both an ancient city with a rich historical heritage and fast developing city under great international influence However with rapid urban development Beijing has gradually lost its cultural identity in terms of urban culture and architecture The city became more modern and international like other metropolis but without its original features Beijing has profited from the impact as well as being aware of protecting cultural heritage After the economic openness around the 1980s the economy of Beijing transformed from a state owned economy to a marketoriented economy Under this circumstance some industries in Beijing deteriorated

Beijing 798 was one of these industries However 798 was found to be a suitable place for art work creation Being a significant urban node 798 has become popular with artists and a premium platform for creative and cultural communication But after gaining an international reputation Beijing 798 has to face the fact that artists cannot afford the high rent and many have moved out due to increasing rent This thesis tends to research on Beijing's cultural characteristics and loss of cultural identity in terms of architecture to identify Beijing's culture To strengthen Beijing 798's cultural role in urban planning this thesis proposes a series of buildings including an art gallery a museum and a theatre This multi cultural centre aims at serving the public and making art part of people's lives globalization In The Icon Project Leslie Sklair focuses on ways in which capitalist globalization is produced and represented all over the world especially in globalizing cities Sklair traces how the iconic buildings of our era elaborate shopping malls spectacular museums and vast urban megaprojects constitute the triumphal Icon Project of contemporary global capitalism promoting increasing inequality and hyperconsumerism Two of the most significant strains of iconic architecture unique icons recognized as works of art designed by the likes of Gehry Foster Koolhaas and Hadid as well as successful derivative icons that copy elements of the starchitects work speak to the centrality of hyperconsumerism within contemporary capitalism Along with explaining how the architecture industry organizes the social production and marketing of iconic structures he also shows how corporations increasingly dominate the built environment and promote the trend towards globalizing consumerist cities The Icon Project Sklair argues is a weapon in the struggle to solidify capitalist hegemony as well as reinforce transnational capitalist control of where we live what we consume and how we think
