High Strangeness Michael Kameron,2023-06-15 Michael Kameron was just an ordinary person who experienced both sides of the paranormal from alien abductions to encountering strange mystical beings stretching back from his childhood right through to his adult life Having been brought up in the backdrop of a stringent Roman Catholic Irish community in the East End of London in the 1970 s it was unthinkable that such unexpected supernatural encounters could exist at all He lived in a house plagued by poltergeist activity encountering spectral visitations from hooded figures Throughout his childhood Michael had been unaware that such experiences were anything other than normal until he realised that upon reflection something odd had been happening that his life was very different from others who considered such supernatural phenomena as totally inexplicable It was then that he became aware that his very existence appeared to be working in parallel worlds and that he was ostensibly living two entirely different lives rather than one Over time his normal day to day functioning began to be affected by the emergence of non terrestrial beings something which had shocked Michael to his core He knew then that not all was what it seemed and he struggled to find transparency in ascertaining the facts Michael also found it hard to trust people During his encounters with non human entities and having experienced bouts of missing time he was also an unwitting victim to the infamous Men in Black along with military exploitation out of body experiences spiritual and psychic confrontations visions along with UFO activity Michael found it hard to relay his experiences to anyone Now he feels it is the time to disclose his events in rich detail if only to help in the healing process and to bring such information to the attention of a wider audience He has found the inner strength in ascertaining that he is not a victim but a soul finding his own destiny with the unfolding of his deeply personal confrontations with alternate dimensions of reality In this book he not only explores his experience and relationships and the effects of one on the other but also the possible reasons why his life has been plagued by various forms of High Strangeness

Deep Weird: The Varieties of High Strangeness Experience Jack Hunter, 2023-01-31 This book is about the stranger reaches of extraordinary experience research In these pages an intrepid cast of writers investigators and academics explore the complexities of extraordinary experience and consider why it is that some of the most unusual experiential reports what we might call high strangeness experiences come to be neglected even in what is already a relatively fringe field of inquiry The aversion to the most unusual forms of extraordinary experience has resulted in a gulf between the kinds of experiences discussed in the academic parapsychological literature and those experiences discussed by Fortean and popular paranormal researchers who have more frequently been able to discuss a broader range of extraordinary experiential accounts from UFO encounters to Bigfoot and fairy sightings and everything in between Notwithstanding this divide there are significant themes that run throughout the established academic literature on religious and extraordinary experience the parapsychological literature and the canon of popular paranormal research These similarities suggest that even the most unusual experiences which are often ignored in academic research contain elements that connect them to other forms of extraordinary experience that are more broadly accepted such as certain kinds of spiritual mystical religious and other paranormal experiences This book is an exploration of the possibility that the highly strange might well be a core underlying feature of extraordinary experiences more generally and that instead of being neglected high strangeness should be granted greater and renewed scholarly and parapsychological attention Includes contributions from Jeffrey J Kripal Jack Hunter Sharon Hewitt Rawlette Gregory Shushan Samantha Lee Treasure Michael Grosso Zofia Weaver Alan Murdie David Luke Simon Young Zelia Edgar Leonardo Breno Martins Peter M Rojcewicz Barbara A Fisher Christopher Diltz Joshua Cutchin Anthony Peake Peter Sj stedt Hughes Susan Demeter and Ren e E Mazinegiizhigo kwe B dard
