In the media, working class immigrant women are often depicted uneducated, conniving and inarticulate. My life, however, as an SFSU graduate student and as a working class immigrant Pilipina American who has supported herself since age 18—speak of a different experience. Watching both my parents slave over 12 hour working days, seven days a week in menial labor jobs just to make rent for a one bedroom apartment was my reality as a child. My parents' work ethic and daily struggles continue to serve as an inspiration for me to strive for a relevant and meaningful education and profession—and to be the first in my family to receive a graduate degree.

Thanks to my parents' encouragement, I was able to graduate cum laude at UCLA with a Psychology and Asian American Studies double major and an Education minor. In my four years at UCLA, I was a five time recipient of the Provost's Honors List. My most rewarding experiences in college, however, were outside of the classroom walls. As a graduating senior I was also recognized with the UCLA Chancellor Service Award, the Pilipino Graduation Enlightenment Award and A. Magazine's Top 10 Student Leader in the Nation for initiating my own community service tutorial project in South Central, Los Angeles – a poor, urban and underserved community. The project was called Project S.E.T. (South Central Evening Tutorial) and we mentored and tutored the children of immigrant parents who were attending evening adult school four nights a week.

A modern woman's guide to making and managing money with practical advice and real-life success stories from the founder of FemmeFrugality.com. Numbers may not care about your gender, but numbers are hardly the driving force behind your financial future. Getting ahead can be difficult when systemic oppression has placed hurdles between you and your aspirations. But it's far from impossible. The Feminist Financial Handbook provides real women the resources and motivation they need to live their wealthiest lives. Author Brynne Conroy shares practical advice on saving, financial planning, and more, while delving into issues that disproportionately affect women, like the wage gap or the long road to economic recovery after experiencing domestic violence. The Feminist Financial Handbook features stories and advice from women of all walks of life who have been there, worked through the struggle, and achieved personal success. Brynne Conroy teaches you how to decide what wealth and success means for you, earn more and negotiate effectively, master manageable money-saving methods, $100,000 and Counting Ashli McLean, 2012-08. 100,000 and Counting is a faith-based guide to winning college scholarships. It is an eclectic mix of academic advice, scriptural references, self-help principles, and a personal testimony. The power in utilizing both faith and works resides as the central theme. With conversational writing, the book provides a wealth of information on college planning, even as it remains a Christian inspirational. Infused with counsel from college and scholarship professionals, it is also wrapped up in McLean's personal testament of how her faith made way for God to provide over 100,000 in scholarships for her college education. With a special focus on minority students, 100,000 and Counting shares the resources and instruction regarding the college application and scholarships processes that many minorities feel disadvantaged in accessing. The book also includes a special guide for parents. 100,000 and Counting is an invaluable asset for parents and students seeking guidance on how to receive scholarships in a society where college costs are increasing significantly each year. The "C" Students Guide to Scholarships Peterson's, 2012-10-23.
