Evan Hayes is an artist and free spirit, and when they meet at a local art exhibition, he is immediately intrigued by Carly. He sees through her public persona, realizing she is not the person she portrays. Evan's the type of man who doesn't have a lot but is perfectly comfortable with who he is. A man who knows what he wants, and he wants Carly. Carly is sure Evan wants something else from her. Everyone does. All Evan is asking is the chance to get to know her, but will Carly let him in? Or will a lifetime of protecting herself prove too hard to overcome? Book 3: Blaze a Trail. They're from the opposite ends of town but they're worlds apart. Zita Flanagan wants more. She wants to help more Central American refugees and make more of an impact. But her family comes first, and fulfilling her own dreams seems impossible. David Randall leads a privileged life and knows nothing about refugee issues. When he meets dynamic, sexy Zita, it seems like the perfect opportunity to learn. But when David's father announces he's running for governor and the focus of his campaign is the refugee problem, Zita has grave concerns for her sister's safety.
