SALVATION IS A "BEFORE AND AFTER" EVENT!

(My Past Life) I was born and raised in a fundamental Muslim community. One must keep in mind that Islam is one of the most rigid religions in the world. Its practices are rigid as well. Many of them are against women. Some of them are the representation of women as the inferior sex, provisions in divorce favoring men, etc. I had to obey Islamic rules and regulations by force. My life was under the sword. I always thought that I am an independent girl and I should have freedom. But I did not have that opportunity in Islam. Though I have tried to make happy the god of Islam. I did not make happy the god of Islam through my work and ritual. As god's expectations were high and I was not able to fulfill the demand. At the age of 18, I became very much mentally disappointed. My family tried to marry me when I was 13 years with an old man who have five wives at a time. I escape from home. I took shelter at one of my relative's homes. I was in a very difficult situation as I didn't have money or food. I just cried over the whole night. I was looking for mental satisfaction but I didn't. After a year of escaping from home, I got a Facebook contact who is a Muslim convert pastor and a renowned speaker. I tried to connect with him over social media. I used very slang words and behaved badly because he left his previous religion. He answered very gently and wisely. I had lots of comparative questions about Christianity and he tried to respond to all of the questions. He (the pastor) asked several challenges about me, my faith, and my eternal life. Here are the challenges.

Reflections of a Disenchanted Calvinist Ronnie W. Rogers,2016-03-28 Reflections of a Disenchanted Calvinist The Disquieting Realities of Calvinism engages one of the classical strands of Protestant thought with the classical strength of Protestantismshedding the light of the Scriptures on the questions of the faith Author Ronnie W Rogers leads readers through the intricacies of Calvinist thought touching on such topics as the sovereignty of God predestination unconditional election the origin of evil free will and faith and works The intent of this journey is to provide a critique of Calvinism and to present readers with a clear picture of the ramifications of subscribing to Calvinist doctrines Chapters address particular theological topics by stating both affirmations rooted in the Scriptures and disaffirmations drawing their support from the Scriptures as well The lines of thought do not shy away from complex theological questions but instead rely upon the riches of theological reflection to assure the critiques of Calvinism are fair both to the doctrines and to the Scriptures If you are a part of the Calvinist tradition and want to explore the nuances of your background or if you locate yourself outside of that tradition but have deep curiosity about the questions the Calvinist tradition raises then Reflections of a Disenchanted Calvinist The Disquieting Realities of Calvinism offers a rigorous guide to exploring the depths of the tradition and critique of the tenets of Calvinism

A Year with Mordecai Kaplan Steven Carr Reuben,2019-04-01 You are invited to spend a year with the inspirational words ideas and counsel of the great twentieth century thinker Rabbi Mordecai Kaplan through his meditations on the fifty four weekly Torah portions and eleven Jewish holidays A pioneer of ideas and action teaching that Judaism is a civilization encompassing Jewish culture art and peoplehood demonstrating how synagogues can be full centers for Jewish living building one of the first shuls with a pool and creating the first ever bat mitzvah ceremony for his daughter Judith Kaplan transformed the landscape of American Jewry Yet much of Kaplan s rich treasury of ethical and spiritual thought is largely unknown Rabbi Steven Carr Reuben who studied closely with Kaplan offers unique insight into Kaplan s teachings about ethical relationships and spiritual fulfillment including how to embrace godliness in everyday experience our mandate to become agents of justice in the world and the human ability to evolve personally and collectively Quoting from the week s Torah portion Reuben presents Torah commentary a related quotation from Kaplan a reflective commentary integrating Kaplan's understanding of the Torah text and an intimate story about his family or community's struggles and triumphs guiding twenty first century spiritual seekers of all backgrounds on how to live reflectively and purposefully every day Postfoundationalist Reflections in Practical Theology Brian C.

Macallan,2014-06-09 Postfoundationalist Reflections in Practical Theology seeks to explore the implications of a Postfoundationalist theology for the discipline of Practical Theology While moving beyond the modernist and postmodernist debates it charts a way forward for a theology that is bound by neither relativism nor certainty It believes that Practical Theology is well suited to this task by its very nature and methodology Foucault and a Politics of Confession in Education Andreas Fejes,Katherine Nicoll,2014-07-25 In liberal democratic and capitalist societies today we are increasingly invited to disclose our innermost thoughts to others We are asked to turn our gaze inwards scrutinizing ourselves our behaviours and beliefs while talking and writing about ourselves in these terms This form of disclosure of the self resonates with older forms of church confession and is now widely seen in practices of education in new ways in nurseries schools colleges universities workplaces and the wider policy arena This book brings together international scholars and researchers inspired by the work of Michel Foucault to explore in detail what happens when these practices of confession become part of our lives and ways of being in education The authors argue that they are not neutral but political and powerful in their effects in shaping and governing people they examine confession as discursive and contemporary practice so as to provoke critical thought International in scope and pioneering in the detail of its scrutiny of such practices this book extends contemporary understanding of the exercise of power and politics of confessional practices in education and learning and offers an alternative way of thinking of them The book will be of value to educational practitioners scholars researchers and students interested in the politics of their own practices Joyous Reflections: 50 Days of Christmas

Professor of Christian Education Yale University Divinity School and author of Reclaiming the Spirituals New Possibilities for African American Christian Education Dr Wimberly has seized upon the heretofore unspoken wisdom of the black church. Local church laity and clergy will easily access this fine work for local churches. Lynne Westfield Assistant Professor of Christian Education Drew Theological School Madison New Jersey Wimberly understands comprehensively the ways education is embodied in congregational life. Indeed she invites us to nurture faith and hope. Jack L Seymour Professor of Religious Education and Academic Dean Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Evanston Illinois Anne E Streaty Wimberly is Professor of Christian Education at The Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia. She is the author of several books including Soul Stories African American Christian Education 1994 Self-Efficacy Beliefs of Adolescents Tim Urdan, Frank Pajares, 2006-02-01. The introduction of the psychological construct of self efficacy is widely acknowledged as one of the most important developments in the history of psychology. Today it is simply not possible to explain phenomena such as human motivation learning self regulation and accomplishment without discussing the role played by self efficacy beliefs. In this the fifth volume of our series on adolescence and education we focus on the self efficacy beliefs of adolescents. We are proud and fortunate to be able to bring together the most prominent voices in the study of self efficacy including that of the Father of Social Cognitive Theory and of self efficacy Professor Albert Bandura. It is our hope and our expectation that this volume will become required reading for all students and scholars in the areas of adolescence and of motivation and of course for all who play a pivotal role in the education and care of youth.
