What Is The Book Of Leaves:

The Book of Leaves Allen J. Coombes, 2014-12-10 Of all our childhood memories few are quite as thrilling or as tactile as those of climbing trees Scampering up the rough trunk spying on the world from the cool green shelter of the canopy lying on a limb and looking up through the leaves at the summer sun almost made it seem as if we were made for trees and trees for us Even in adulthood trees retain their power from the refreshing way their waves of green break the monotony of a cityscape to the way their autumn transformations take our breath away In this lavishly illustrated volume the trees that have enriched our lives finally get their full due through a focus on the humble leaves that serve in a sense as their public face The Book of Leaves offers a visually stunning and scientifically engaging guide to six hundred of the most impressive and beautiful leaves from around the world Each leaf is reproduced here at its actual size in full color and is accompanied by an explanation of the range distribution abundance and habitat of the tree on which it is found Brief scientific and historical accounts of each tree and related species include fun filled facts and anecdotes that broaden its portrait The Henry's Maple for instance found in China and named for an Irish doctor who collected leaves there bears little initial resemblance to the statuesque maples of North America from its diminutive stature to its unusual trifoliate leaves Or the Mediterranean Olive which has been known to live for more than 1 500 years and whose short narrow leaves only fall after two or three years pushed out in stages by the emergence of younger leaves From the familiar friends of our backyards to the giants of deep woods The Book of Leaves brings the forest to life and to our living rooms as never before

The Book Of Gold Leaves Mirza Waheed, 2014-10-30. Shortlisted for the DSC Prize for South Asian Literature 2016. Mirza Waheed's extraordinary new novel The Book of Gold Leaves is a heartbreaking love story set in war-torn Kashmir. In an ancient house in the city of Srinagar, Faiz paints exquisite Papier Mache pencil boxes for tourists. Evening is beginning to slip into night when he sets off for the shrine. There he finds the woman with the long black hair. Roohi is prostrate before her. God. She begs for the boy of her dreams to come and take her away. Roohi wants a love story. An age-old tale of love, war, temptation, duty, and choice. The Book of Gold Leaves is a heartbreaking tale of a what might have been, what could have been, if only I loved it. The voice is lyrical to match the beauty of Kashmir, and yet it is tinged with melancholy and grief, as is the story it tells. Nadeem Aslam on The Collaborator. Waheed's prose burns with the fever of anger and despair; the scenes in the valley are exceptional, conveying a hallucinatory living nightmare that has become an everyday reality for Kashmiris. Metro on The Collaborator. Mirza Waheed was born and brought up in Kashmir. His debut novel The Collaborator was shortlisted for the Guardian First Book Award and the Shakti Bhat Prize and longlisted for the Desmond Elliott Prize. It was also book of the year for The Telegraph, New Statesman, Financial Times, Business Standard, and Telegraph India, among others. Waheed has written for the BBC, The Guardian, Granta, Al Jazeera English, and the New York Times. He lives in London.
