What The Lady Wants English Edition:

What Women Want Lisa Tawn Bergren, Rebecca Price, 2009-06-10 From a deeper relationship with God to harmony in the home from stronger marriages to more satisfying work Women Want More In What Women Want bestselling author Lisa T Bergren and Rebecca Price invite readers to thoughtfully consider their soul deep longings and pursue God's best in every area of life Using in depth interviews from a national survey and hundreds of personal interviews biblical narratives their own personal stories and inspiring quotes the authors point fellow seekers toward the kind of wholeness God desires providing lots of fun and inspiration along the way They explore friendship how and where to find happiness health and more with an eye on physical emotional and spiritual matters A Bible study designed for personal or group use and tested with dozens of women's ministries around the country before publication is included at the end of each chapter Young or old married or single with children or without striving in the workplace or working in the home readers will resonate with Lisa and Rebecca's descriptions of the life women crave and learn how God fulfills the very desires He stirs Women in Love D. H. Lawrence, 1987-05-21 Seen by Lawrence as his most accomplished book but subject to the initial prudery and incomprehension that met most of his fiction Women in Love examines the regenerative and destructive aspects of human passion as illustrated by its depiction of Ursula and Gudrun Brangwen who first appeared in The Rainbow and their relationships with Gerald Crich and Rupert Birkin Set against the backdrop of a world consuming itself in war the novel creates an instructive vision of humanity's dance with life and death This text is the famous first Women in Love the unexpurgated version preferred by Lawrence himself which was rejected by every publisher because of the banning of The Rainbow in 1915 More positive in tone than the revised version published in his lifetime with different central relationships and a radically different ending it is now viewed by many as Lawrence's masterpiece BOOK JACKET What Women Want Beatrice Forbes-Robertson Hale, 1914 Hale a feminist reviews the women's movement its problems methods and goals
