Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, Sara Sanders, 2021-08-31 Living Through Loss provides a foundational identification of the many ways in which people experience loss over the life course from childhood to old age It examines the interventions most effective at each phase of life combining theory sound clinical practice and empirical research with insights emerging from powerful accounts of personal experience The authors emphasize that loss and grief are universal yet highly individualized Loss comes in many forms and can include not only a loved one s death but also divorce adoption living with chronic illness caregiving retirement and relocation or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach the topic from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges people s capacity to find meaning in their losses and integrate grief into their lives The book explores the varying roles of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in responses to loss Presenting a variety of models approaches and resources Living Through Loss offers invaluable lessons that can be applied in any practice setting by a wide range of human service and health care professionals This second edition features new and expanded content on diversity and trauma including discussions of gun violence police brutality suicide and an added focus on systemic racism

Teardrops That Tango Amber Cote, 2015-03-30 Ill never forget the last words my fianc said to me before I watched him die You want me to end all of your problems Amber Ill end them all right now He spat his words through clenched teeth his jaw was locked Kirks normally composed personality had disappeared replaced with that of a hysterical man who was right in front of me His wrath had quickly diminished what I knew of the easy going man I was scheduled to marry in two months He struggled and clawed against the air moving toward our bedroom The breath locked in my lungs when he reappeared clutching his fathers 9mm Smith Wesson His forehead was slick with sweat as he buried the muzzle into his right temple A pang of futility pierced through me blanching the color from my face The pulsing terror was so acute I was virtually paralyzed My mind struggled to defy this indefinable moment as Kirk wielded that gun I was frantically holding onto his life by willpower alone but my wits were sapped Wrestling with reality my vision distorted watching my life played out like a movie on fast forward jumping from one random event to another I wasnt in a real life drama but a nightmare How can this be happening Kirks legs quavered as he tried to stabilize himself I could feel my throat begin to swell when he narrowed his eyes and tightly pursed his lips I struggled to escape the rising panic that twisted within my newly pregnant belly and coursed up to my fingertips His nostrils flared as his index finger curled around the trigger Oh no Please God no Grief in Children Atle Dyregrov, 2008-03-15 This fully updated second edition of Grief in Children provides an overview of children s understanding of death at different ages and outlines how the adults around them can best help them cope The author provides guidance on handling loss and bereavement at school and discusses the value of bereavement groups and support for child and caregiver
