Vine. [2nd]-11th, 13th year sir John Richard Somers Vine, 1886 Pleasures and Pastimes in Tudor England Alison Sim, 2011-11-08 How did the Tudors enjoy themselves For the men and women of Tudor England there was just as there is today more to life than work Four hundred years before the invention of television and radio they did not lead boring or mundane lives Indeed in many ways the richness of Tudor entertainment shames us While continuing the medieval tradition of tournament and pageantry the Tudors also increasingly read and attended the theatre Dancing and music were also popular and were considered just as important as hunting and fighting for an ambitious Tudor's social skills Church festivals provided the perfect excuse for revelry and christenings and weddings were as they are today great social occasions Here Alison Sim explores the full range of entertainments enjoyed at that time covering everything from card games and bear baiting to interior design Visions of British Culture from the Reformation to Romanticism Celestina Savonius-Wroth, 2022-01-17 This book is a major new contribution to the study of cultural identities in Britain and Ireland from the Reformation to Romanticism It provides a fresh perspective on the rise of interest in British vernacular or folk cultures which has often been elided with the emergence of British Romanticism and its Continental precursors Here the Romantics' discovery of and admiration for vernacular traditions is placed in a longer historical timeline reaching back to the controversies sparked by the Protestant Reformation The book charts the emergence of a nuanced discourse about vernacular cultures developing in response to the Reformers' devastating attack on customary practices and beliefs relating to the natural world seasonal festivities and rites of passage It became a discourse grounded in humanist Biblical and antiquarian scholarship informed by the theological and pastoral problems of the long period of religious instability after the Reformation and over the course of the eighteenth century colored by new ideas about culture drawn from Enlightenment historicism and empiricism This study shows that Romantic literary primitivism and Romantic social thought both radical and conservative grew out of this rich context It will be welcomed by historians of early modern and eighteenth century Britain and those interested in the study of religious and vernacular cultures Jayne's Medical Almanac and Guide to Health, 1908 State Crime, Women and Gender Victoria E. Collins, 2015-10-05 The United Nations has called violence against women the most pervasive yet least recognized human rights abuse in the world and there is a long established history of the systematic victimization of women by the state during times of peace and conflict This book contributes to the established literature on women gender and crime and the growing research on state crime and extends the discussion of violence against women to include the role and extent of crime and violence perpetrated by the state State Crime Women and Gender examines state perpetrated violence against women in all its various forms Drawing on case studies from around the world patterns of state perpetrated violence are examined as it relates to women s victimization their role as perpetrators resistors of state violence as well as their engagement as professionals in the international criminal justice system From the direct involvement of Condoleezza Rice in the United States led war on terror to the women of Egypt s Arab Spring Uprising to Afghani poetry as a means to resist state sanctioned patriarchal control case examples are used to highlight the pervasive and enduring problem of state perpetrated violence against women The exploration of topics that have not previously been addressed in the criminological literature such as women as perpetrators of state violence and their role as willing consumers who reinforce and replicate the existing state sanctioned patriarchal status quo makes State Crime Women and Gender a must read for students and scholars engaged in the study of state crime victimology and feminist criminology

Power and Powerlessness Edward Hall,2025-06-23 Power and Powerlessness The Liberalism of Fear in the Twenty First Century examines whether the liberalism of fear the negative and cautionary vein of liberal thinking most famously articulated by Judith Shklar which urges us to prioritize the avoidance of public cruelty can effectively orient our political thinking in the twenty first century Hall systematically engages with Shklar s writings to offer a defence of liberalism in these terms and also methodically works through a variety of practical political issues torture policing immigration control and hate speech In so doing Hall upends the suggestion that the liberalism of fear is an outdated species of Cold War Liberalism arguing that as long as some people are invested with coercive power to exercise over others there is a likelihood for public cruelty to emerge Moreover by examining some central features of politics in the twenty first century the book offers a series of vital and original recommendations about how we can respond to public cruelty here and now Freedom in the World 2015 Freedom House,2015-12-24 Freedom in the World the Freedom House flagship survey whose findings have been published annually since 1972 is the standard setting comparative assessment of global political rights and civil liberties The survey ratings and narrative reports on 195 countries and fourteen territories are used by policymakers the media international corporations civic activists and human rights defenders to monitor trends in democracy and track improvements and setbacks in freedom worldwide The Freedom in the World political rights and civil liberties ratings are determined through a multi layered process of research and evaluation by a team of regional analysts and eminent scholars The analysts used a broad range of sources of information including foreign and domestic news reports academic studies nongovernmental organizations think tanks individual professional contacts and visits to the region in conducting their research The methodology of the survey is derived in large measure from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and these standards are applied to all countries and territories irrespective of geographical location ethnic or religious composition or level of economic development Music, Music Therapy and Refugees Sami Alanne,2025-09-07 This book is the first of its kind dealing with music therapy and traumas for music therapists psychotherapists and other mental health workers working with refugees asylum seekers and their families It follows the music therapy literature by studying music and traumas from the psychodynamic principles and can be used for the educational purposes of treating especially from different cultural backgrounds In addition to the clinical and educational purposes this book can also be used as a reference book for researchers of music therapy and its methods for refugees This book is contributing to the most recent psychological social and philosophical discussions and aspects of liberating musical practices from oppression and discrimination Cultural attuning and dialoguing are proposed as the methods for building ethically sound practices with clients from different social and normative backgrounds Human Rights at Risk Salvador Santino F. Regilme,Irene Hadiprayitno,2022-06-17 Human Rights at Risk brings together social scientists legal scholars and humanities scholars to analyze the policy challenges of human rights protection in the twenty first century The volume is organized based on three overarching themes that highlight the challenges and risks in international human rights international institutions and global governance of human rights thematic blind spots in human rights protection and the human rights challenges of the United States as a global and domestic actor amidst the contemporary global shifts to authoritarianism and illiberal populism One of the very few books that offer new perspectives that envision the future of transnational human rights norms and human dignity from a multidisciplinary perspective Human Rights at Risk comprehensively examines the causes and consequences of the challenges faced by international human rights Scholars students and policy practitioners who are interested in the challenges and reform prospects of the international human rights regime United States foreign policy and international institutions will find this multidisciplinary volume an invaluable guide to the state of global politics in the twenty first century The Trees of the Cross Gregory C. Bryda, 2023-06-13 A revelatory exploration of wood's many material, ecological and symbolic meanings in the religious art of medieval Germany. A rewarding study that is full of new insights. Jeremy Warren, Art Newspaper. In late medieval Germany, wood was a material laden with significance. It was an important part of the local environment and economy as well as an object of religious devotion in and of itself. Gregory C. Bryda examines the multiple meanings of wood and greenery within religious art as a material, as a feature of agrarian life, and as a symbol of the cross, whose wood has resonances with other iconographies in the liturgy. Bryda discusses how influential artists such as Matthias Grünewald, known for the Isenheim Altarpiece, and the renowned sculptor Tilman Riemenschneider exploited wood's multivalent nature to connect spiritual themes to the lived environment outside church walls. Exploring the complex visual and material culture of the period, this lavishly illustrated volume features works ranging from monumental altarpieces to portable pictures and offers a fresh understanding of how wood in art functioned to unlock the mysteries of faith and the natural world in both liturgy and everyday life. Whitaker's Almanack 2002 Stationery Office, The, 2002.
