Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men Sara Martín,2025-05-30 Masculinity in Contemporary Science Fiction by Men No Plans for the Future is the first comprehensive study of the self representation of men in SF novels published in the twenty first century by male authors Exploring a broad selection of writers and works the fourteen chapters present a panoramic overview of men s contributions to current SF and explore their slow but noticeable progress in the representation of gender The impact of feminism and gender studies and the demands of readers have profoundly transformed men s SF which now presents far more caring and vulnerable male characters The old stereotypes are being replaced by a collective reflection on how men and masculinity are changing though the lack of a common agenda results in novels that while exciting and often challenging sometimes miss the chance to imagine a better anti patriarchal pro feminist future for men and for all human beings The authors analysed include Robert Charles Wilson Geoff Ryman Samuel R Delany Richard K Morgan John Scalzi Iain M Banks Ernest Cline James S A Corey Colson Whitehead Andy Weir Daniel H Wilson Ian McDonald Yoon Ha Lee Tade Thompson Neal Stephenson and Kim Stanley Robinson

Contact with Extraterrestrial Intelligence and Human Law Michael Bohlander,2023-08-07 It is statistically unlikely that humans are the only intelligent species in the universe Nothing about the others will be known until contact is made beyond a radio signal from space that merely tells us they existed when it was sent That contact may occur tomorrow in a hundred years or never If it does it will be a high risk scenario for humanity It may be peaceful or hostile Relying on alien altruism and benign intentions is wishful thinking We need to begin identifying as a planetary species and develop a global consensus on how to respond in either scenario

The End of All Things John Scalzi, 2015-08-11 Hugo award-winning author John Scalzi returns to his best-selling Old Man's War universe with The End of All Things, the direct sequel to 2013's The Human Division. Humans expanded into space only to find a universe populated with multiple alien species bent on their destruction. Thus was the Colonial Union formed to help protect us from a hostile universe. The Colonial Union used the Earth and its excess population for colonists and soldiers. It was a good arrangement for the Colonial Union. Then the Earth said no more. Now the Colonial Union is living on borrowed time, a couple of decades at most, before the ranks of the Colonial Defense Forces are depleted and the struggling human colonies are vulnerable to the alien species who have been waiting for the first sign of weakness to drive humanity to ruin. And there's another problem: A group lurking in the darkness of space playing human and alien against each other and against their own kind for their own unknown reasons. In this collapsing universe, CDF Lieutenant Harry Wilson and the Colonial Union diplomats he works with race against the clock to discover who is behind attacks on the Union and on alien races, to seek peace with a suspicious, angry Earth, and keep humanity's union intact or else risk oblivion and extinction and the end of all things.
