

A man and a woman are embracing in a kitchen. The man, on the left, has a beard and is wearing a grey t-shirt and purple plaid pants. The woman, on the right, has long dark hair and is wearing a light blue striped shirt and dark blue shorts. They are both smiling and looking at each other. The background shows a modern kitchen with wooden cabinets, a white countertop, and a black stovetop. A vase with purple flowers is on the left, and a bowl of food is on the right.

The Edge of Sex Lisa Speidel, Micah Jones, 2019-11-27 The Edge of Sex is an anthology of voices from the margins bringing together 37 writers to discuss their experiences of sex and sex education in America The anthology explores often overlooked and excluded identities with pieces on sexuality and disabilities survivors of assault sex work as women of color kink and BDSM being Muslim and queer reproductive rights and the challenges of culture and identity when grappling with gender fluidity and gendered expectations As they trace the negative effects of a restrictive fear-based sex education particularly on marginalized individuals these stories unearth larger themes tensions with race and religion expectations from heteronormative society and pressures of femininity and masculinity Importantly they also highlight the resilience and empowerment of marginalized individuals within a culture designed to ostracize them The rich diverse and intersectional stories of The Edge of Sex paint a contextualized picture of sex education and make an urgent case for better representation and more inclusive consistent and comprehensive content By reading this anthology casual readers may learn more about their sexual selves clinicians can apply the material to their practices with clients and educators and students can expand their knowledge of feminist theory intersectional theory queer theory and sex education

Compensated Dating Cassini Sai Kwan Chu, 2018-01-16 This book considers a burgeoning social phenomenon compensated dating in Hong Kong that facilitates direct commercial sex exchange between consenting females from their mid-teens through the late 20s and males from their early 20s to mid-adulthood Informed by the transformation of intimacy the breakdown of institutional constraints the emergence of a new female sexual autonomy and the advancement of information technology this book moves beyond stereotypes of sex work to look at the complexities of compensated dating

The phenomenon of compensated dating is distinctive from most other sex trades in that it involves intense emotional interactions and often extends beyond the commercial boundary. Given the dynamic flexible and ambiguous nature of compensated dating it has become more of a space for sexual explorations and less of a rigid model of commercial sex at least in the eye of the participants. This book walks through how men become involved in compensated dating and also sheds lights on how gender relations are negotiated with important implications on what it means to be a man and a woman in contemporary Hong Kong society. It also speaks to the broader transformations of some of the key social structures and elements particularly gender and sexualities in the era of late modernity.

Youth Sexuality in the Context of HIV/AIDS in South Africa Karl Peltzer, Supa Pengpid, Teresa-Ann B. Mashego, 2006

Dowsett 2003 notes that by far the vast majority of non biomedical research on HIV AIDS has been behavioural research usually by survey methods counting people's sex acts partners preferences places times and reasons for sex and assessing levels of risk for HIV infection revealing the dominance of seeing sex largely as behaviours.

Relationships 5.0 Elyakim Kislev, 2022

Accessible and compelling Relationships 5.0 reveals the ongoing epochal change in human relationships towards technology meant to fulfill emotional intellectual and physical needs that have until now been met by other humans.

Prison Homosexuality Alice M. Propper, 1981

Prostitution Eva-Maria Heberer, 2013-12-06

Eva Maria Heberer provides an overview over the history of prostitution in Germany in which she discusses changes in legislation in society and its view on prostitution as well as in the market for commercial sex since 1846. Two different models describing a woman's decision to engage in sex work are suggested. Both are kept as general as possible and based on universal microeconomic models. The effect of a changing probability of getting caught selling commercial sex is analyzed using the Slutsky decomposition. Relevant variables influencing the supply of sex work are identified and measured using historical and up to date data for the state of Hamburg and Germany. Correlations between the variables are described and discussed allowing to conclude that a higher probability of getting caught led to a lower supply of commercial sex over the years.

Future Reflections Keith L Wright, 2011-04-08

A hundred years ago in civilised Britain a man could sell his wife at the local market for 5. In the last hundred years machines have taken over many of the manual tasks once performed physically by men. Indeed many women now undertake the jobs once preserved for men only. In schooling girls frequently perform better than boys. In relationships it can often be the woman who runs the family accounts and provides the income. This book in fictional terms explores the world where women have gone beyond equal rights and evolved into the dominant gender leaving men behind mentally and socially. The man in the story David largely enjoys being married to a senior executive with his only function in life to please his wife. He is a man and therefore has no real use in society other than to please women. One day his life is changed and he is forced into a world for which he is totally unprepared. How he deals with it and the effect it has on him is probably why this is only a work of fiction and although a hundred years ago one gender was totally dominant it is unlikely this will ever happen again. The book will in parts shock you.

it may make you laugh but certainly it will make you think

The Pimping of Prostitution Julie Bindel, 2019-06-15 This book examines one of the most contested issues facing feminists human rights activists and governments around the globe the international sex trade For decades the liberal left has been conflicted as to whether pro prostitution activists or abolitionists hold the correct view and debates are ongoing as to who holds the key to the solutions facing the women and girls involved Over the course of two years Bindel conducted 250 interviews in almost 40 countries cities and states traveling around Europe Asia North America Australia New Zealand and East and South Africa Visiting legal brothels all around the world Bindel got to know pimps pornographers survivors of the sex trade and the women being sold by men classed as business entrepreneurs Whilst meeting feminist abolitionists pro prostitution campaigners police and government officials and the men who drive the demand Bindel uncovered the lies mythology and criminal activity that shroud this global trade and suggests here a way forward for the women seeking to abolish the oldest oppression Informed by the lived human experience of those interviewed this book will be of great interest to feminists students criminal justice advocates criminologists and human rights activists

The Development of Aggression in Early Childhood Henri Parens, 2008 This revised edition of The Development of Aggression in Early Childhood presents anew the author's multi trends theory of aggression with the addition of a two part preface that provides an overview of the multitudinous theories of aggression in psychoanalytic thought and a discussion of the clinical applications with clinical case examples of his theory

Sex Tourism on the Kenyan Coast Rose Omondi, Chris Ryan, 2024-08-28 This book challenges many suppositions surrounding sex tourism suggesting that elderly males who seek romance and are caught up in their fantasies of finding love with exotic black women are taken advantage of even while the women are often deluding themselves when searching for the mzungu who will enable them to fulfil their dreams of travel house ownership and comfort It is a complex story based on research into the lives of the sex workers obtained from a study conducted over 12 months in the bars and nightclubs of the Kenyan coast Fortunes are made and lost but the tragedy is that the success of the few in achieving their dreams becomes a false promise for the majority who seek to emulate the success of the few The book will be of immense value to those interested in gender studies and indeed those who hold an interest in the complexities of sex work

Tradition and Modernity in the Mediterranean Vassos Argyrou, 1996-06-13 The subject of Vassos Argyrou's study is modernisation as reflected in the changing nature of wedding celebrations in Cyprus over two generations from the 1930s to the present day He argues that modernisation is not a secular progressive process that remodels the life of a society ironing out local differences Rather it is a legitimising discourse It is an idiom which Greek Cypriots employ to represent and contest relationships between social classes old and young men and women city folk and villagers At the same time by involving modernisation they are submitting to foreign standards and accepting the symbolic domination of Europe

American Film in the Digital Age Robert C. Sickels, 2010-12-08 This eclectic yet comprehensive analytical overview of the cataclysmic changes in the American film industry since 1990 shows how they have collectively resulted in a new era The Digital Age The American film industry has entered a new era American Film in the Digital Age traces the industrial changes since 1990 that have brought us to this point namely the rise of media conglomerates the proliferation of pornography through peripheral avenues of mainstream media the role of star actors and directors in distributing and publicizing their own pet projects the development of digital technology and the death of truly independent films Author Robert Sickels draws straight lines from the movies to music DVDs video games fast food digital on demand and more to demonstrate how all forms of media are merging into one He explores the irony that the success of independent films essentially killed independent cinema showing how it has become almost impossible to get a film released without the imprimatur of one of the big six media companies Fox Viacom TimeWarner Disney General Electric or CBS In the end using recent popular films as examples he explains not only how we got where we are but where we're likely headed as well

Women and Bullfighting Sarah Pink, 2020-07-12 This book investigates the popularity and success of contemporary women performers in bullfighting culture which has been framed by a discourse of traditionalist masculinity This examination of the changing situation of women in the bullfighting world is used to explore the ways in which gender is represented enacted and negotiated in contemporary Spain The bullfight in the 1990s is in an ambiguous position it is a traditional performance in a changing consumer society In order to survive it needs to adapt itself to a wider social context and in particular to international media coverage It is in this context that the current success of women performers is located However women performers are a contested phenomenon in the bullfighting world there is heated debate over their acceptability much of which focuses on the body Moreover the entry of women into the bullfight questions existing definitions of the sport's ritual structure and of gender relations in Spain Thoroughly researched and compelling to read Women and

Bullfighting addresses these issues and argues that existing traditionalist approaches to gender bullfighting and ritual in Spain need to be revised in order to locate women bullfighters in the context of a richly varied culture which is increasingly affected by the media and contemporary patterns of consumption This provocative book will be of interest to researchers and students of anthropology gender studies sociology cultural studies media studies and Spanish studies Sex, Men and God Douglas Weiss,2002 Finally a book that deals with men s sexual issues in a direct compassionate and spiritual manner Dr Douglas Weiss shows men how they are not alone in their struggles and temptations regarding sex He also provides a roadmap to follow in bringing up young men to have a holy and scriptural understanding of God s plan for sex Coercion and Trust Saradamoyee Chatterjee,Jill Jameson,2024-06-17 The first volume in the Lucy Cavendish College Lecture Series Coercion and Trust provides a unique multi disciplinary dialogue on the complex links between coercion and trust from perspectives in the social sciences medicine and literature combining high quality academic research with professional recommendations Part I analyses adolescent adult relationships in youth fiction alongside research on the sexual coercion of women and the link between animal and domestic violence Part II investigates blind trust and coercion in social media grooming challenges and solutions to coercion by misinformation Part III investigates coercion and trust in migration detention deportation kidnapping in violent political campaigns and sentencing in rehabilitation The book makes a significant original contribution to multi disciplinary research professional practice and advanced development with theoretical and empirical chapters linking theory practice and training This book will be of interest to academic researchers professional practitioners and postgraduate students in research and training in multiple fields across the social sciences humanities and medicine for whom there is no comparable book available worldwide Evolutionary Psychology David Buss,2015-10-02 This book examines human psychology and behavior through the lens of modern evolutionary psychology Evolutionary Psychology The New Science of the Mind 5 e provides students with the conceptual tools of evolutionary psychology and applies them to empirical research on the human mind Content topics are logically arrayed starting with challenges of survival mating parenting and kinship and then progressing to challenges of group living including cooperation aggression sexual conflict and status prestige and social hierarchies Students gain a deep understanding of applying evolutionary psychology to their own lives and all the people they interact with Saving Sex Trevor Stammers,Tim Doak,2006-05-01 Saving Sex is a book for teenagers answering explicit questions about relationships and sex from a biblical perspective and stressing the possibility and advantages of sexual abstinence for the unmarried The book aims to provide a medically accurate biblical alternative to the liberal condom focused sex education books currently available Written especially for teenagers this resource is also valuable for parents teachers and youth pastors
