Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot

Victorian Cultures of Liminality Amina Alyal, Susan Anderson, 2018-07-27 This volume is unique in its focus on cross fertilisation in the arts on very specific exploration of liminal spaces and on the representation of marginal figures in writing The essays here grew out of the Borders and Margins colloquium held at Leeds Trinity University UK in April 2010 which was the fourth in a series of colloquia This collection moreover contributes to a growing area of scholarship which explores Anglo French interactions and exchanges In choosing the term liminality the editors are aware of its nuanced implications allowing suggestions both of the initial and the transitional The contributors here are academics from the fields of literature history and art history and their essays cover art history literature cultural history the arts and faith Altogether this collection evokes a sense of temporal shift in that changes in values and focus are uncovered as the nineteenth century progresses Some have an ekphrastic quality showing how pictures can have a narrative and how pictures as well as texts can be encoded with moral and social interpretations Close scrutiny is applied to different kinds of texts fiction and non fiction and the purposes for which they were produced This book will appeal to scholars and academics interested in a wide range of cross categorisational transactions in nineteenth century Britain It will be of interest to scholars of Victorian culture and English nineteenth century literature and art particularly in terms of genre as well as to academics interested in the development of social personal and national identities
