The Great Pasta Invasion:

The Arc Invaded J. P. Le Roux, 2018-11-12 With the help of their Chilean daughter in law a recently retired US Professor of Ecology and his wife buy a piece of forested land with a wooden cabin in a remote part of the Andean foothills On their first visit to the property they take their two grandchildren with them Enchanted by the beauty of their surroundings they explore the forest around The Arc as they name the house However unexpected visitors turn their paradise into a nightmare The narrative follows an escaped Colombian drug lord in his flight across South America Hot on his heels are an FBI agent and a female Colombian police officer serving as his interpreter The two develop feelings towards each other but their opposite religious views form an obstacle to the relationship The different threads of the story finally converge on The Arc where a tense drama develops as some members of the family are taken hostage Extraordinary events and an unexpected finale cause some of the actors to change their outlook on life
