Representations of Dalit Protagonists Hanumant Ajinath Lokhande, 2024-09-23 This book interrogates canonical Indian English fiction which has Dalit characters as protagonists or major characters and argues that the representation of such characters although well meant is regulated and made unremarkable It examines how the normative discourse of the Anglophone novel portrays Dalits from an upper caste point of view devoid of Ambedkarite or Dalit consciousness and thus implicitly reinscribes the upper caste power by restricting the narrative to merely represent Dalit submission and victimhood The arguments then are substantiated by setting up a comparative framework through contrastive analysis of selected narratives by Dalit writers from Marathi Dalit literature to highlight the differential representational paradigms that mark the absence or presence of Ambedkarite consciousness and perspective Threads of Resonance: Narratives by Indian Women Writing in English Dr. Bhagyalaxmi, 2025-03-29 Threads of Resonance Narratives by Indian Women Writing in English is a compelling anthology that brings together a diverse collection of stories essays and poems penned by Indian women authors This compilation delves into the multifaceted experiences of Indian women exploring themes such as identity tradition modernity and the intricate balance between personal desires and societal expectations The narratives traverse various landscapes from bustling urban centers to serene rural settings offering readers a panoramic view of India's cultural and social milieu The anthology features works from both renowned and emerging writers providing a platform for a multitude of voices and perspectives Each piece is a testament to the resilience creativity and introspection of Indian women capturing the essence of their struggles triumphs and everyday lives Through rich storytelling and poetic expression Threads of Resonance not only entertains but also prompts reflection on the evolving roles of women in contemporary Indian society
