Hockenberry, this book provides the accurate information you need to succeed in the classroom, the clinical setting, and on the Next Generation NCLEX RN examination. Evidence-Based Practice boxes include findings from recent clinical studies. Emergency Treatment boxes describe the signs and symptoms of emergency situations and provide step-by-step interventions. Atraumatic Care boxes teach students how to manage pain and provide competent care to pediatric patients with the least amount of physical or psychological stress. Community Focus boxes emphasize community issues, provide resources and guidance, and illustrate nursing care in a variety of settings. Patient Teaching boxes highlight important information nurses need to communicate to patients and families. Cultural Considerations boxes describe beliefs and practices relating to pregnancy, labor, and birth, parenting, and women's health. Family-Centered Care boxes draw attention to the needs or concerns of families that students should consider to provide family-centered care.

I Confess! Thomas Waugh, Brandon Arroyo, 2019-11-21 In the postwar decades, sexual revolutions, first women's suffrage, flappers, Prohibition, and Mae West, later Alfred Kinsey, Hugh Hefner, and the pill, altered the lifestyles and desires of generations. Since the 1990s, the internet and its cataclysmic cultural and social technological shifts have unleashed a third sexual revolution, crystallized in the acts and rituals of confession that are a staple of our twenty-first-century lives. In I Confess, a collection of thirty original essays, leading international scholars such as Ken Plummer, Susanna Paasonen, Tom

Roach and Shohini Ghosh explore the ideas of confession and sexuality in moving image arts and media mostly in the Global North over the last quarter century Through self referencing or autobiographical stories testimonies and performances and through rigorously scrutinized case studies of gay for pay gaming camming YouTube uploads and the films Tarnation and Nymph maniac the contributors describe a spectrum of identities desires and related representational practices Together these desires and practices shape how we see construct and live our identities within this third sexual revolution embodying both its ominous implications of surveillance and control and its utopian glimmers of community and liberation Inspired by theorists from Michel Foucault and Gilles Deleuze to Gayle Rubin and Jos Esteban Muñoz I Confess reflects an extraordinary paradigm shifting proliferation of first person voices and imagery produced during the third sexual revolution from the eve of the internet to today
