Wolfgang Guggemos

The Immanent Divine God Creation And The Human Predicament:

The Immanent Divine John J. Thatamanil, While traditional Christian thought and spirituality have always affirmed the divine presence in human life Thatamanil argues we have much to learn from non dualistic Hindu thought especially that of the eighth century thinker Sankara and from the Christian panentheism of Paul Tillich Thatamanil compares their diagnoses and prognoses of the human predicament in light of their doctrine of God or Ultimate Reality What emerges is a new theology of God and human beings with a richer and more radical conception of divine immanence a reconceived divine transcendence and a keener sense of how the dynamic and active Spirit at work in us anchors real hope and deep joy Using key insights from Christian and Hindu thought Thatamanil vindicates comparative theology expands the vocabulary about the ineffable God and arrives at a new construal of the problems and prospects of the human condition

Creation and Religious Pluralism David Cheetham, 2020-08-21 In the well worn debates about religious pluralism and the theology of religions there have been many different rubrics used to account for comprehend or engage with the religious other This book is chiefly a work of Christian theology and seeks to bring the doctrine of creation and the theology of religions into dialogue and in so doing it comes at things from a different direction than other works It contains an extensive exploration of the doctrine of creation and asks how it might intervene distinctively in these discourses to produce a new conceptual and practical topography It will consider inter religious engagement from the perspective of the doctrine of creatio ex nihilo that forms the dominant view in the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions The book pays close consideration to anthropology i e creaturehood the quotidian and wisdom the idea of sabbath human action and work and vivifying the immanent through a consideration of some representative phenomenologists The book will develop these ideas in a more practical direction by considering sacraments and rituals in the public sphere as well as attempting to describe the kind of creational politics that might bring traditions into dialogue Whilst these themes challenge more conventional ways of considering relations between religions such themes because they are different from concerns commonly found in the literature can also be profitably engaged with across the spectrum of opinion i e exclusivist or pluralist etc Thus whilst the position adopted in this work is creatio ex nihilo part of the motivation is to review the ways in which this focus helps to broaden rather than limit the discussion

Post-Traumatic Public Theology Stephanie N. Arel, Shelly Rambo, 2016-11-02 This book imagines new modes of religious response to trauma moving beyond simple answers to the why of human suffering toward discussions of profound expressions of faith in the aftermath of trauma Engaging current realities such as war race and climate change chapters feature specific locations from which theology is done and draw on the resources of Christian faith in order to respond This volume recognizes religious leaders as first responders to trauma and offers theological reflections that can stand up in the current realities of violence and its aftermath The writings provide models for how to integrate the language of faith with the literature of trauma

the most important Orthodox Jewish voices advocating change have been those of Irving Yitz Greenberg and Jonathan Sacks This book presents the theological moral and social views of these two leading rabbis It focuses on the significance of covenant for both and how they adapt this concept to enable the development of a Jewish view of other religions In considering how they may have influenced each other it also studies the limitations and internal contradictions that characterize their work as they attempt to point the way forward in a spirit of dialogue to continuing theological reflection on Judaism s approach to world religions The Cambridge Companion to Paul Tillich Russell Re Manning,2009-02-12 This authoritative Companion to the theologian Paul Tillich provides an accessible account of the major themes in his diverse theological writings It embodies and develops recent renewed interest in Tillich s theology and reaffirms him as a major figure in today s theological landscape Polydoxy Catherine Keller,Laurel Schneider,2010-10-04 Religious pluralism the collapse of traditional religious institutions and the growing impact of religious studies on believers have prompted widespread rethinking of what religion is Polydoxy offers a brilliant and original theological response to this intellectual crisis by suggesting that there are multiple forms of right belief Reacting against reductive or nostalgic theological tendencies the chapters in this book by an impressive array of scholars take an exciting and creative approach to theology in the twenty first century Longing and Letting Go Holly Hillgardner,2017 Can we love God and others without our desires eclipsing the very beauty integrity and diversity toward which we are drawn that is can we love without trying to possess Spanning centuries continents and religious traditions Longing and Letting Go looks to Christian writer Hadewijch and Hindu songstress Mirabai to explore their inextricable practices of longing and letting go and more particularly the interreligious possibilities of passionate non attachment for an interconnected pluralistic world Erotic Faith Mari Kim,2022-03-24 The thought of contemporary North American theologian and ethicist Wendy Farley is an unflinching clarion call to justice and compassion Farley invites us to discover ways of embodying the deep compassion capable of resisting pernicious distortions and traumatizing injustices that harm and dehumanize us all This volume of essays embodies her invitation to awaken as beloved community And when we are overwhelmed by the magnitude of struggle and despair Farley reminds us that the powerful longing of hope at times against all evidence refuses to give up on seeking justice and wholeness Compassionate justice radical hospitality creative liberation and deep listening emerge as more than ethical values for Farley they are expressions of erotic faith a praxis of faithfulness born of divine desire These writings explore transformative perspectives and practices that have the capacity to help us recover and author our identity as the god bearers we are Erotic faith embodies the love seeking persistence of divine faithfulness necessary to transform us from within it meets the truth of human harm vulnerability and suffering by offering a complex struggling unscripted creativity capable of remaking us and our world until the beloved community is whole Agamben and Theology Colby Dickinson,2011-06-30 Dualities Michelle Voss Roberts,2010-01-01 Philosophy and theology have each struggled with the problem of dualism the conviction
