

Chapter Questions The Giver

Chapter 1

1. What impression does the airplane ban give you about the kind of place Jonas lives in?
2. What do you think the word 'released' means? (Hint: Think about what the word means to us and how it could be made into a punishment)
3. What is the most important thing in Jonas community?
4. Why do you think they do not have animals?
5. Do you think you would enjoy the nightly ritual of sharing feelings? Why or why not? (Think about what might be good about it and what might not be good)
6. How would you feel living in a place where rules were so important? Why?
7. What members is each family made up of? Can this be changed?

Chapter 2

8. Jonas is at the same time eager and apprehensive of his 'twelve' ceremony. Tell about a time that you have had mixed feelings about something.
9. What job does Jonas father have? His mother?
10. How is the raising of babies different in their society than ours?
11. What do children get when they turn nine?
12. Which ceremony is most important? Why?
13. The children are given 'assignments' for their adult lives, what would we call these?
14. Would you like to have someone else choose your future? Why or why not? (Remember the choices made are based on observations of you)
15. What happens to children's 'comfort object' when they turn eight? What do you think of this? Why?

This book is my humble attempt to amplify these voices to bridge the chasm of misunderstanding that has long separated the Northeast from the rest of India. It is a labor of love born from countless conversations with tribal elders, young activists, and everyday people who shared their hopes, fears, and dreams with a stranger who came to listen. Through these pages, I invite you to walk alongside the people of the Northeast to feel the weight of their history and to envision a future where their unique identities are celebrated as integral threads in the grand fabric of our nation. My decision to write this book stemmed from numerous conversations and interactions with individuals from the Northeast. Their stories, often filled with pain, resilience, and hope, prompted me to confront my own understanding of what it means to be part of a nation that frequently overlooks its most marginalized communities. The narratives of these individuals are a testament to the harsh realities they endure from armed conflicts and insurgencies to the struggle for basic rights and recognition. The Northeast's conflicts are not merely regional issues; they reflect broader questions about national identity, unity, and the very nature of democracy in India.

CBSE Class 12 Physics Handbook - MINDMAPS, Solved Papers, Objective Question Bank & Practice Papers Disha Experts, 2019-07-19 Authentic Project-Based Learning in Grades 4-8 Dayna Laur, 2019-08-21

Authentic Project Based Learning in Grades 4-8 provides a clear guide to design, develop, and implement real-world challenges for any middle school subject. The author lays out five clear, standards-based stages of assessment to help you and your learners process the what, how, and why of authentic project-based experiences. You'll learn how to create projects that align with your content standards, integrate technology effectively, support reading and writing development, utilize formative assessment, allow for multiple complex pathways to emerge, facilitate the development of essential skills beyond school. Each chapter includes a variety of practical examples to assist with scaffolding and implementation. The templates and tools in the appendix are also provided on our website as free eResources for ease of use.

On the Wings of Time Lawrence Olufemi Obisakin, 2007 Sin, the Human Predicament, and Salvation in the Gospel of John Mathew E. Sousa, 2021-08-12

Mathew E. Sousa demonstrates that in certain respects, John's doctrine of salvation fails to align with its customary depiction in Johannine scholarship. Sousa suggests that, according to John, the human predicament is not merely unbelief or a lack of mental perception, and Jesus's mission consists not merely of revelation and/or a purely forensic atonement. Rather, Jesus is, for John, the one who makes true and everlasting life an accomplished fact for humanity, and in doing so, Jesus reveals the true nature of the predicament from which he saves. Sousa argues that salvation in the Gospel of John concerns ethics and the quality or condition of human corporeality. The matters of sin and death, in particular, also make clear that, according to John, the human predicament is a reality that in various ways persists for believers as they both are and become children of God. Sousa thus concludes that salvation for John consists of far more than the emergence of belief in a moment of decision.
