Biographical Dictionary of Scottish Women Elizabeth L. Ewan,Sue Innes,Sian Reynolds,Rose Pipes,2007-06-27 This single volume dictionary presents the lives of individual Scottish women from earliest times to the present Drawing on newscholarship and a wide network of professional and amateur historians it throws light on the experience of women from every class and category in Scotland and among the worldwide Scottish diaspora The Biographical Dictionary of Scottish Women is written for the general reading public and for students of Scottish history and society It is scholarly in its approach to evidence and engaging in the manner of its presentation Each entry makes sense of its subject in narrative terms telling a story rather than simply offering information The book is as enjoyable to read as it is easy and valuable to consult It is a unique and important contribution to the history of women and Scotland The publisher acknowledges support from the Scottish Arts Council and the Scottish Executive Equalities Unit towards the publication of this title □□□□□□□□ ,1887

The Celtic Magazine Alexander Mackenzie,Alexander Macgregor,Alexander Macbain,1887 Gendered Citizenship Bishnupriya Dutt,Janelle Reinelt,Shrinkhla Sahai,2017-11-23 This book explores how citizenship is differently gendered and performed across national and regional boundaries Using citizenship as its organizing concept it is a collection of multidisciplinary approaches to legal socio cultural and performative aspects of gender construction and identity violence against women victimhood and agency and everyday issues of socialization in a globalized world It brings together scholars of politics media and performance who are committed to dialogue across both nation and discipline This study is the culmination of a two year project on the topic of Gendered Citizenship arising from an international collaboration that has sought to develop a comparative and yet singular perspective on performance in relation to key political themes facing our countries of origin in the early decades of this century The research is interdisciplinary and multinational drawing on Indian European and North and South American contexts Opening Schools and Closing Prisons Andrew G. Ralston,2016-11-10 The book covers the period from 1812 when the Tron Riot in Edinburgh dramatically drew attention to the lamentable extent of juvenile depravity up to 1872 when the Education Act Scotland inaugurated a system of universal schooling During the 1840s and 1850s in particular there was a move away from a punitive approach to young offenders to one based on reformation and prevention Scotland played a key role in developing reformatory institutions notably the Glasgow House of Refuge the largest of its type in the UK and industrial schools which provided meals and education for children in danger of falling into crime These schools were pioneered in Aberdeen by Sheriff William Watson and in Edinburgh by the Reverend Thomas Guthrie and exerted considerable influence throughout the United Kingdom The experience of the Scottish schools was crucial in the development of legislation for a national UK wide system between 1854 and 1866 Biometrika ,1901 A journal of statistics emphasizing the statistical study of biological problems Papers contain original theoretical contributions of direct or potential value in applications The Tin Ticket Deborah J. Swiss, 2010-10-05 The convict women who built a continent A moving and fascinating story Adam Hochschild author of King Leopold's Ghost Historian Deborah J Swiss tells the heartbreaking horrifying and ultimately triumphant story of the women exiled from the British Isles and forced into slavery and savagery who created the most liberated society of their time The Tin Ticket takes us to the dawn of the nineteenth century and into the lives of Agnes McMillan whose defiance and resilience carried her to a far more dramatic rebellion Agnes's best friend Janet Houston who rescued her from the Glasgow wynds and was also transported to Van Diemen's Land Ludlow Tedder forced to choose just one of her four children to accompany her to the other side of the world Bridget Mulligan who gave birth to a line of powerful women stretching to the present day It also tells the tale of Elizabeth Gurney Fry a Quaker reformer who touched all their lives Ultimately it is the story of women discarded by their homeland and forgotten by history who by sheer force of will become the heart and soul of a new nation Report for the Year ... of the Inspector Appointed Under the Provisions of the Act 5 & 6 Will. IV. C. 38, to Visit the Certified Reformatory and Industrial Schools of Great Britain Great Britain. Home Office, 1902 Navigating the (Post)Colonial Pathways of Somali Migration to Scotland Emma Hill, 2025-01-06 What happens when migration takes place between sites defined by different types of colonial difference This book asks this question in the context of Somali migration to Scotland which it maps over a century of colonial relations independence movements and the reorganisation of the post colonial Somali and British states Framing both Somalia and Scotland as sites of marginality in the matrices of colonial power it tracks through a combination of archival material and contemporary testimonies the operation development and divergence of the coloniality of power in shaping Somali migration and citizenship experiences in Scotland However whilst the book has a grounded and localised focus it makes the argument that Somali Scottish migration cases present the urgent need for a holistic approach to the operation of coloniality which not only emanates from the so called centre of Empire but also at and between its edges

A Gallery of Her Own Elree I. Harris, Shirley R.
