

Listen and practice

Once upon a time, there was a crow. He had a piece of meat and sat on a branch to eat.

A hungry fox saw this, and his mouth watered when he saw the piece of meat. He thought of a plan to get it. He praised the voice of the crow. The fox started to compliment the crow on her looks and voice. The fox asked the crow, "Can you sing for me?" The crow was flattered by the fox's words and opened his mouth to sing; the piece of meat fell down. The fox ate it and went away.

The Moral of the story is
Beware of flatter.

The Diary of a Mad Chef Daniel DellaVecchia,2012-08-01
This family cookbook morphed into much more for me during the writing process It began by contacting friends and family to collect recipes for what I thought would be a simple process During those conversations and with my own memories a flood of personal history evolved in my mind What began as a repository of food recipes became much more to me and I decided to collect the process in the form of this book The Diary of a Mad Chef to also include photos of those people and selected short stories Food has always been the center of our familys common narrative thread and I attempted to place the face and the stories of my friends and family with the recipes as I remember them Along with the feedback and photos from my friends and family it became a two year long effort to compile edit and publish this book The journey has been a magnificent experience for me and I am grateful to have had the time and opportunity to write this book
