handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour

Peter Jackson Alfio Leotta, 2015-12-17 Peter Jackson is one of the most acclaimed and influential contemporary film makers This is the first book to combine the examination of Jackson s career with an in depth critical analysis of his films thus providing readers with the most comprehensive study of the New Zealand film maker s body of work The first section of the book concentrates on Jackson s biography surveying the evolution of his career from the director of cult slapstick movies such as Meet the Feebles 1989 and Braindead 1992 to an entrepreneur responsible for the foundation of companies such as Wingnut Films and Weta Workshop and finally to producer and director of mega blockbuster projects such as The Lord of the Rings 2001 2003 and The Hobbit 2012 2013 The book further examines Jackson s work at the level of production reception and textuality along with key collaborative relationships and significant themes associated with Jackson s films The examination of Peter Jackson s work and career ties into significant academic debates including the relationship between national cinema and global Hollywood the global dispersal of film production the relationship between film authorship and industrial modes of production the impact of the creative industries on the construction of national identity and new developments in film technology

The Making of... Adaptation and the Cultural Imaginary Jan Cronin, 2019-11-25 This book explores Making of sites as a genre of cultural artefact Moving beyond making of documentaries the book analyses novels drama film museum exhibitions and popular studies that re present the making of culturally loaded film adaptations It argues that the Making of genre operates on an adaptive spectrum orienting towards and enacting the adaptation of films and their making The book examines the behaviours that characterise Making of sites across visual media it explores the cultural work done by these sites why recognition of Making of sites as adaptations matters and why our conception of adaptation matters Part one focuses on the adaptive domain presented by the Making of John Ford's The Quiet Man Part two attends to Making of Gone with the Wind sites and concludes with Making of The Lord of the Rings texts as the acme of the cultural risks and investments charted in earlier chapters
