From Grantmaker to Leader Frank L. Ellsworth, Joe Lumarda, 2002-12-11 FROM GRANTMAKER TO LEADER The past one hundred years has borne witness to an extraordinary revolution in the constitution and activities of philanthropic foundations The evolution of the governance of foundations from founder to family to professionals to institutions has necessarily altered the role that foundations play within a society As community foundations for example strengthen the essential communal fabric and help all organizations gain a financial foothold they find themselves at times in conflict with commercial gift funds whose transactional nature between the donor and the organization stimulates philanthropy in a wholly different fashion From Grantmaker to Leader Emerging Strategies for 21st Century Foundations takes stock of this shifting landscape presenting bold leadership strategies for directing philanthropic organizations into the uncharted waters of the future Seasoned foundation executives Frank Ellsworth and Joseph Lumarda assemble an all star roster of insider contributors dividing their trenchant study into three sections From Carnegie to Gates The Changing Faces and Needs of Philanthropy examines the history of family and community foundations and how the turmoil of the New Economy will affect these organizations in the future Section Two The Foundation's New Reach The Emerging Role of Leader Communicator and Facilitator of Change addresses the critical responsibility of effectively articulating a foundation's message showing how messages can successfully penetrate the media Finally the third section Building the Foundation Board of the 21st Century Diversity and Strategic Planning analyzes all aspects of foundation boards of directors including their makeup responsibilities backgrounds necessary diversity and the role of boards in foundation planning Throughout all three sections From Grantmaker to Leader tackles all the critical issues facing philanthropic foundations today such as Transfer of wealth Legislative concerns IRS audits The role of foundations in public policy issues such as campaign spending Accountability Planned giving Assessment of the effectiveness of giving Socially responsible investment and social return on investment Even as the very nature of foundations has changed a fundamental question remains will philanthropies play a more pervasive role in society's future or will their influence forever remain elitist and selective Writing directly for trustees practitioners foundation CEOs and CFOs and every philanthropic professional Ellsworth and Lumarda make the convincing case that foundations matter more than ever offering proven strategies for philanthropic success FRANK L ELLSWORTH is a vice president at Capital Research and Management Company where he oversees and coordinates programs and services to endowments in Los Angeles JOSEPH LUMARDA is the Executive Vice President of External Affairs for the California Community Foundation in Los Angeles

The Foundation Directory, 2007 Guide to Funding for International and Foreign Programs, 2004 Storytelling for Grantseekers Cheryl A. Clarke, 2009-01-12 Grantwriters often have little or no training in the practical task of grantseeking Many feel intimidated by the act of writing and some don't enjoy writing In Storytelling for Grantseekers Second Edition

Cheryl Clarke presents an organic approach to grantseeking one that views the process through the lens of the pleasures and rewards of crafting a good story Grantseekers who approach the process as one in which they are connecting with an audience grantmakers and writing a narrative complete with settings characters antagonists and resolutions find greater success with funders The writing process becomes a rewarding way to tell the organization s tale rather than a chore and their passion and creativity lead to winning proposals This book walks readers through all the main phases of the proposal highlighting the creative elements that link components to each other and unify the entire proposal The book contains resources on crafting an effective synopsis overcoming grantwriter s block packaging the story and the best ways to approach the short stories inquiry and cover letters that support the larger proposal Clarke also stresses the need to see proposal writing as part of a larger grantseeking effort one that emphasizes preparation working with the entire development staff and maintaining good relations with funders In Storytelling for Grantseekers new and experienced grantseekers alike will discover how to write and support successful proposals with humor and passion New edition features Overall updates as well as both refreshed and new examples Workshop exercises for using the storytelling approach New chapters on the application of the storytelling method to other fundraising communications like appeal letters and case statements as well as the importance of site visits Example of a full narrative proposal ENC Focus ,2000
