Palmer Bullock has made a good life for himself All of his many accomplishments have been based on his very high and rigid principles and his rules of ethical conduct Some would think such a life grueling and unrewarding but for Palmer it is the easy way rewarding in its certainty and pleasing to his sense of right and wrong He has a good law practice a generous gentleman s farm a pretty wife a son and a daughter Then one remote act sets in motion a chain of events which like cascading dominos falling one upon the next upsets his entire world his confidence in his rules of life his confidence in his self control and self determination and his belief in himself as a good man The story of Palmer s fall includes passion overriding reason questionable business dealings a haunting injustice from the distant past and the friendship of a lifetime Jack Dawson the author was born in October of 1940 in Bainbridge Georgia a still small town in the southeastern part of the state split evenly by the sleepy and serene Flint River and grew up in Valdosta Georgia where he graduated high school in 1958 Being young and without sufficient direction or initiative to pursue an education he joined the U S Navy and enjoyed nearly four years of great adventure at sea This was in the day when all healthy males did their time in service to their country sooner or later by joining voluntarily through the path to gentleman hood offered by the ROTC in college or by draft After finishing his military obligation and being released from active duty and having gained an immeasurably greater sense of maturity and personal responsibility he decided to pursue a college education He studied for a year at a local college making the dean s list in order to offset his abysmal high school academic record before he was then accepted at Georgia Tech in Atlanta where he majored in aerospace engineering During his junior year he just by chance took a ride with a friend in a two seat air plane and his life would never be the same He quit school after finishing his junior year and after applying was hired by a major airline to work in the engineering department all the while learning to fly and building hours and at night earning a degree in Mathematics Eventually he was transferred to Flight Operations where he flew the big jets until retirement in 1999 He then moved to remote region of the West Virginia mountains where he began to write in earnest An urge to write had always been in the back of his head kept there by the many obligations necessary and otherwise of day to day living Soon through the auspices of a new found friend a sporting magazine writer he was writing a weekly column for a local newspaper and aside from that began writing a novel and converting some of his columns into short stories The writing of the short stories he found provided an interlude in his writing of the novel which allowed the characters therein to decide what they were going to do

Joyce and Lacan Daniel Bristow, 2016-07-15 What happens when the intellectual giant of twentieth century literature James Joyce is made an object of consideration and cause of desire by the intellectual giant of modern psychoanalysis Jacques Lacan This is what Joyce and Lacan explores in the three closely interrelated areas of reading writing and psychoanalysis by delving into Joyce s own relationship with psychoanalysis in his lifetime The book concentrates primarily on his last text Finnegans Wake the notorious difficulty of which arises from its challenging the intellect itself and our own processes of reading As well as the centrality of the Wake concepts of Joycean ontology sanity singularity and sexuality are excavated from sustained analysis of his earliest writings onward To be post Joycean as Lacan describes it means then to be in the wake not only of Joyce but also of Lacan s interventions on the Irish writer made in the mid 70s It was this encounter that gave rise to concepts that have gained currency in today s psychoanalytic theory and practice and importance in wider critical contexts The notions of the sinthome la langue and Lacan's use of topology and knot theory are explored within as well as new theories being launched The book will be of interest to psychoanalysts literary theorists and students and teachers of literature theory or the works of Joyce and Lacan
