The Glasses We Wear Reflections On Christian Worldview:

The Glasses We Wear Michael G. Garland, 2014-12-19 The glasses we wear change everything about us Did you know that each one of us wears glasses Even if you have 20/20 vision you wear worldview glasses a particular set of lenses through which you view the world and interpret life For example how do you see God Is He loving relational cruel distant or maybe just imaginary And how do you see yourself As a good person who is in control happy and living with purpose Or instead as insignificant lost or broken The answers to these questions have life changing implications and deserve careful consideration The good news is you can change your glasses Using concise chapters reflective poetry and thoughtful study questions Michael G Garland invites you to see the world through a different set of glasses While exploring the Christian perspective The Glasses We Wear will challenge you to examine closely the lens through which you see God the world and yourself

Worldview David K. Naugle,2002-07-16 Conceiving of Christianity as a worldview has been one of the most significant events in the church in the last 150 years In this new book David Naugle provides the best discussion yet of the history and contemporary use of worldview as a totalizing approach to faith and life This informative volume first locates the origin of worldview in the writings of Immanuel Kant and surveys the rapid proliferation of its use throughout the English speaking world Naugle then provides the first study ever undertaken of the insights of major Western philosophers on the subject of worldview and offers an original examination of the role this concept has played in the natural and social sciences Finally Naugle gives the concept biblical and theological grounding exploring the unique ways that worldview has been used in the Evangelical Orthodox and Catholic traditions This clear presentation of the concept of worldview will be valuable to a wide range of readers The Totally Usable Summit Ministries Guide to Choosing a College Ronald Nash,J. F. Baldwin,1995 Introducing Cultural Anthropology Brian M. Howell,Jenell Williams Paris,2010-12 This concise introductory cultural anthropology textbook gives special attention to issues of concern to Christians and features plentiful maps photos and sidebars Taking Off Roofs and Building Bridges Alan J. Pihringer,2022-09-27 Why don t they believe the same things I do Why don t they see things my way We get frustrated when people hold differing opinions from ours or view life s major issues from conflicting angles Their system of belief their worldview seems foreign to us as they filter the events of this world in ways that we would never have imagined and then come to conclusions that we would never even consider When other peoples worldviews contradict ours both of us cannot be right Is there a way to account for the differences and determine if one is right and the other wrong For the Christian especially can we defend the Christian worldview in a way that upholds our entire system of belief and then opens the door to share the gospel with those who believe differently from us The method of worldview apologetics enables the Christian to expose the faults in other worldviews demonstrate the truth of the Christian worldview and build a bridge for others to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ Both scholarly and practical worldview apologetics equips the Christian to assess and critique differing belief systems and fulfill the call to Great Commission outreach Desiring the Kingdom (Cultural Liturgies) James K. A. Smith,2009-08-01 Malls stadiums and universities are actually liturgical structures that influence and shape our thoughts and affections Humans as Augustine noted are desiring agents full of longings and passions in brief we are what we love James K A Smith focuses on the themes of liturgy and desire in Desiring the Kingdom the first book in what will be a three volume set on the theology of culture He redirects our yearnings to focus on the greatest good God Ultimately Smith seeks to re vision education through the process and practice of worship Students of philosophy theology worldview and culture will welcome Desiring the Kingdom as will those involved in ministry and other interested readers Theology and Down Syndrome Amos Yong,2007 While the struggle for disability rights has transformed secular ethics and public policy traditional Christian teaching has been slow to account for disability in its theological imagination Amos Yong crafts both a theology of disability and a theology informed by disability The result is a Christian theology that not only connects with our present social medical and scientific understanding of disability but also one that empowers a set of best practices appropriate to our late modern context Publisher description Glass House Ken Ham,Bodie Hodge,2019-02-20 Evolution as an idea is considered a rock solid truth among secular scientists but when you begin looking at the evidence and asking simple questions you find their conclusions to be just fragile assumptions unproven myth and outright misconceptions like a glass house built on shifting sands Discover the pervasive influences of the atheistic religion of Darwinian evolution Learn what science is and how science is actually devastating to evolution Explore how evolution developed from unproven science to a popular and cultural worldview Now a powerful team of credentialed scientists researchers and Biblical apologists take on the pillars of evolution and the truths they reveal decimate Darwin's beliefs using a Biblical and logical approach to evidence

A Full-Hearted Life Jake Owensby, 2024-12-03 Meaningful answers for life's big questions Everyone must ask life's big questions Even people who reject any hint of the supernatural and insist that nothing exists apart from matter will have to find meaning for themselves To put this another way the defining mark of our secular age is not the absence of belief but rather the effect on our consciousness of the sheer number of competing belief systems That effect is fragilization And so belief is fragile We don t have to believe what we believe We could believe something else entirely This book articulates how believing in Jesus gives us a sense of who we are why we re here what the good life is and how to move toward that good life This is not traditional apologetics offering logical proofs that God exists or that Jesus is God incarnate or that all those alternative belief systems are false Put simply the aim of this book is to help you see for yourself and to explain to others how Christian belief and Christian practice can make life meaningful If you want to know what it looks and feels like to be a Christian read this book If as a Christian you could use a little encouragement look no further The Rt Rev Mariann Edgar Budde Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington DC author of How We Learn to Be Brave Decisive Moments in Life and Faith A Biblical Commentary on James Bruce Guckelberg Ph.D.,2015-04-24 James is one of the most practical books of the Bible because he covers issues that are common to all people Bruce Guckelberg develops the concept of Gods wisdom being necessary to meet the challenges of life This commentary unfolds the meaning of each passage in a clear and concise manner while not getting sidetracked on secondary issues There are insights and applications for every section of the book that will help the reader apply the truths that James presents This commentary can help you cope with the challenges life presents to you through Gods wisdom and enrich you spiritually Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1959-02 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Worldview ,1978 Los Angeles Magazine ,2005-06 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian
