

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a person wearing a white, hooded robe, possibly a monk or a religious figure, standing on the deck of a boat. The person is looking down at their hands, which are clasped in front of them. The scene is set at sunset or sunrise, with a warm, golden light reflecting on the water and the person's robe. The sky is a deep blue, and the water is calm, showing a clear reflection of the person and the light. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

The Illustrated Worlds Religions:

The Illustrated World's Religions Huston Smith, 1995-08-18 Retaining all the beloved qualities of Huston Smith's classic The Religions of Man and the current fully revised and updated The World's Religions this stunning pictorial presentation refines the text to its wonderful essentials. In detailed, absorbing, richly illustrated and highly readable chapters on Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Islam, Judaism, Christianity, and primal religions, we find refreshing and fascinating presentations of both the differences and the similarities among the worldwide religious traditions. The approach is at once classic and contemporary, retaining all the empathy, eloquence, and erudition that millions of readers love about the earlier editions, while being edited and designed for a contemporary general readership. This delightful marriage of winsome text and remarkable pictures vividly brings to life the scope and vision of Huston Smith's expertise and insight. The Illustrated World's Religions Huston Smith, 2008-10-01 Detailed, absorbing, richly illustrated and highly readable, this work presents the essential elements and teachings of each of the predominant world religions, including primal religions, and illuminates each with full color illustrations. The Illustrated Guide to World Religions Michael David Coogan, 1998 Graced with rich illustrations and written by a team of eminent scholars, this book presents a wealth of information on faiths around the world. Ross, 2009-06-04 Two abundantly illustrated volumes offer a vibrant discussion of how the divine is and has been represented in art and architecture the world over. Beginning with the ancient worlds of Mesopotamia, Egypt, Greece, and Rome and moving forward through time, Art and Architecture of the World's Religions explores the major faiths from countries and continents around the globe, helping readers better understand the creations their beliefs have inspired. After tracing the history and development of a religion, the book provides a general overview of its principal beliefs and key practices. It then offers specific examples of how works of art, architecture, reflect that religion's values. The focus of each chapter is on the temples, churches, and religious buildings, statues, paintings, and other works of art and architecture created by believers. Each representative work of art or architecture is examined in terms of its history, materials, symbols, colors, and patterns, as its significance is explained to the reader. With extensive illustrations, these volumes are the definitive reference work on art and architecture of the world's religions. Islam and Other Major World Religions Kaiyume Baksh, 2007 A general description of the world's major religions, along with chapters on whether there is a God, Angels, Miracles, Reincarnation, the Qur'an, and Life after Death. World Religions for
