Study Guide Quebec 2015 History Grade 1:

A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford, 2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience

The Formal and Informal Politics of British Rule in Post-conquest Quebec, 1760-1837 Nancy Christie, 2020 This striking reinterpretation of the history of Quebec in the revolutionary era demonstrated through a micro historical analysis of 20 000 court records as well as official and unofficial political discourses shows that a central aim of British Imperial rule was the assimilation and subjugation of the French Canadian majority in the colony

Geographies of Schooling Holger Jahnke, Caroline Kramer, Peter Meusbürger, 2019-08-21 This open access book explores the complex relationship between schooling as a set of practices embedded in educational institutions and their specific spatial dimensions from different disciplinary perspectives It presents innovative empirical and conceptual research by international scholars from the fields of social geography pedagogy educational and social sciences in Germany the United Kingdom France Czechia Hungary Austria Switzerland Norway and Canada The book covers a broad range of topics all examined from a spatial perspective the governance of schooling the transition processes of and within national school systems the question of small schools in peripheral areas as well as the embeddedness of schooling in broader processes of social change Transcending disciplinary boundaries the book offers deep insights into current theoretical debates and empirical case studies within the broad research field encompassing the complex relationship between education and space

Questions of Order Peter Price, 2020-12-07 What happened on 1 July 1867 Over 150 years after Canadian Confederation it seems like a question with an obvious answer Questions of Order argues that Confederation was not just a political deal struck by politicians in 1867 but a process of reconfiguring political concepts and the basis of political association Breaking new ground Questions of Order argues that Confederation was an imperial event that generated new questions concerns and ideas about the future of political order in the British Empire and the world It traces how for many public writers in English Canada Confederation became an important basis for reimagining political order in the empire and redefining basic political concepts To some it marked a clear step in the larger project of imperial federation or even the ultimate union of the English speaking world For others however it represented the certain fragmentation of the empire into sovereign national states Set in the context of a time of enormous social and cultural change when so many long held assumptions and firmly believed truths were faltering in the wave of new scientific and philosophical beliefs the creation of Canada forced writers and public thinkers to grapple with the nature of political association and attempt to find new answers to critical questions of order

Globalisation and Multicultural Education Joseph Zajda, Suzanne Majhanovich, 2024-11-11 This book analyses dominant discourses of globalisation multiculturalism and schooling The chapters advance further the discussions on globalisation and its impact on cultural diversity and multiculturalism in a globalised world Multicultural education as presented in this volume is seen in a broad context It includes factors such as race ethnicity gender socio economic status culture age and physical ability as well as a variety of beliefs and values Zajda has argued that globalisation represents a synthesis of technology ideology and organisation specifically related to border crossings of people global finance trade IT convergence as well as cross cultural communication The reality of multiculturalism has been brought into stronger focus because of globalisation Multiculturalism is more evident today because of globalisation The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation and dominant models of multicultural education and their impact on students engagement and academic achievement A Written Constitution for Quebec?

Richard Albert, Léonid Sirota, 2023-01-15 No province in Canada has codified a written constitution and whether Quebec should be the first remains a controversial question A Written Constitution for Quebec enters into the debate drawing a roadmap through the legal political and constitutional terrain of the issue Leading scholars each take their own position in the debate examining the issue from various sides and exploring the forms and limits of a codified Quebec constitution by asking whether Quebec should adopt a written constitution how the province might go about it and what such a document might achieve Along with a comprehensive introduction to constitutional codification and how it relates to Quebec the book opens with a proposal for a written constitution with the analyses that follow expressing a diversity of views on the feasibility and desirability of a written constitution for the province An array of perspectives through the lenses of Indigenous inclusion and reconciliation interculturalism and democratic constitutionalism and insights from other federal and plurinational states are included in this wide ranging volume Taking a doctrinal historical theoretical and comparative approach A Written Constitution for Quebec extensively addresses Quebec s constitutional future in Canada

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matemba, Bruce A. Collet, 2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems

Ring Around the Maple Cynthia R. Comacchio, Neil Sutherland, 2024-10-29 Ring Around the Maple is about the condition of children in Canada from roughly 1850 to 2000 a time during which the modern increasingly disrupted traditional ways Authors Cynthia R Comacchio and Neil Sutherland trace the lives of children over this long century with a view to synthesizing the rich interdisciplinary often multi disciplinary literature that has emerged since the 1970s Integrated into this synthesis is the authors new research into many often seemingly disparate archival and published primary sources Emphasizing how the child and childhood are sociohistoric constructs and employing age analytically and relationally they discuss the constants and the variants in their historic dimensions While childhood tangibly modernized during these years it remained a far from universal experience due to identifiers of race gender culture region and intergenerational adaptations that characterize the process of growing up This work highlights children s perspectives through close critical readings of diaries correspondence memoirs interviews oral histories and autobiographies many buried in obscure archives It is the only extant historical discussion of Canadian children that interweaves the experiences of First Nations M tis and Inuit children with those of children from a number of settler groups Ring Around the Maple makes use of photographs catalogues advertisements government publications musical recordings radio shows television shows material goods documentary and feature films and other such visual and aural testimony Much of this evidence has not to date been used as historical testimony to uncover the lives of ordinary children This book is generously illustrated with photographs and ephemera carefully selected to reflect children s lives conditions interests and obligations It will be of special interest to historians and social scientists interested in children and the culture of childhood but will also appeal to readers who enjoy the little stories that together make up our collective history especially when those are told by the children who lived them Understanding the Olympics John Horne, Garry Whannel, 2020-04-08 How did the Olympics evolve into a multi national phenomenon How can the Olympics help us to understand the relationship between sport and society What will be the impact and legacy of the Olympics after Tokyo in 2020 Understanding the Olympics answers all these questions by exploring the social cultural political historical and economic context of the Games This thoroughly revised and updated edition discusses recent attempts at future proofing by the International Olympic Committee IOC in the face of growing global anti Olympic activism the changing geo political context within which the Olympics take place and the Olympic histories of the next three cities to host the Games Tokyo 2020 Paris 2024 and Los Angeles 2028 as well as the legacy of the London 2012 Olympics For the first time this new edition introduces the reader to the emergence of other Games associated with the IOC the Winter Olympics the Paralympics and the Youth Olympics It also features a full Olympic history timeline many new photographs refreshed suggestions for further reading and revised illustrations The most up to date and authoritative textbook available on the Olympic Games Understanding the Olympics is essential reading for anybody with an interest in the Olympics or the wider relationship between sport and society Deindustrializing Montreal Steven High, 2022-06-13 Point Saint Charles a historically white working class neighbourhood with a strong Irish and French presence and Little Burgundy a multiracial neighbourhood that is home to the city's English speaking Black community face each other across Montreal's Lachine Canal once an artery around which work and industry in Montreal were clustered and by which these two communities were formed and divided Deindustrializing Montreal challenges the deepening divergence of class and race analysis by recognizing the intimate relationship between capitalism class struggles and racial inequality Fundamentally deindustrialization is a process of physical and social ruination as well as part of a wider political project that leaves working class communities impoverished and demoralized The structural violence of capitalism occurs gradually and out of sight but it doesn't play out the same for everyone Point Saint Charles was left to rot until it was revalorized by gentrification whereas Little Burgundy was torn apart by urban renewal and highway construction This historical divergence had profound consequences in how urban change has been experienced understood and remembered Drawing extensive interviews a massive and varied archive of imagery and original photography by David Lewis into a complex chorus Steven High brings these communities to life tracing their history from their earliest years to their decline and their current reality He extends the analysis of deindustrialization often focused on single industry towns to cities that have seemingly made the post industrial transition The urban neighbourhood has never been a settled concept and its apparent innocence masks considerable contestation divergence and change over time Deindustrializing Montreal thinks critically about locality revealing how heritage becomes an agent of gentrification investigating how places like Little Burgundy and the Point acquire race and class identities and questioning what is preserved and for whom Women, Crime and Punishment in Ireland Elaine Farrell, 2020-10 Focusing on women's relationships life circumstances and agency Elaine Farrell reveals the voices emotions and decisions of incarcerated women and those affected by their imprisonment offering an intimate insight into their experiences of the criminal justice system across urban and rural post Famine Ireland

Border Culture Victor Konrad, Anne-Laure Amilhat Szary, 2022-12-29 This book introduces readers to the cultural imaginings of borders the in between spaces in which transnationalism collides with geopolitical cooperation and contestation Recent debates about the refugee crisis and the spread of the COVID 19 pandemic have politicized culture at and of borders like never before Border culture is no longer culture at the margins but rather culture at the heart of geopolitics flows and experience of the transnational world Increasingly culture and borders are everywhere yet nowhere In border spaces national narratives and counter narratives are tested and evaluated coming up against transnational culture This book provides an extensive and critical vision of border culture on the move drawing on numerous examples worldwide and a growing international literature across border and cultural studies It shows how border culture develops in the human imagination and manifests in human constructs of nation and state as well as in transnationalism By analyzing this new and expanding cultural geography of border landscapes the book shows the way to a fresh broader dialogue Exploring the nature and meaning of the intersection of border and culture this book will be an essential read for students and researchers across border studies geopolitics geography and cultural studies

Generations and Nationalism Alain-G Gagnon, Luc Turgeon, 2025-09-02 Generations and Nationalism breaks new ground by placing the impact of generation and generational changes at the forefront of an investigation on the transformation of nationalist movements and the evolution of support for independence in Catalonia Quebec and Scotland The main objective of the book is to explore how a focus on generations and generational change can add first to the theoretical toolkit used in the study of nationalism and second can lead to a better understanding of the recent evolution of nationalism in three internal nations Catalonia Quebec and Scotland The book is also an occasion to revisit the distinct evolution of nationalism in these three internal nations that have been the object of important comparative studies in the past and frequent comparisons in public discourses but in which nationalist movements have gone through relatively distinct transformations over the past decade The different chapters tackle nation building autonomy and self determination ethnic identity conflict and accommodation ethnonationalism irredentism and separatism and immigration naturalization and citizenship The book also is unique to the extent that it establishes a dialogue between scholars who are specialists of public opinion drawing on quantitative methods and scholars drawing on different comparative historical perspectives in sociology and political science Containing both theoretical discussions of nationalism as well as case studies and comparative analyses of nationalist movements Generations and Nationalism will be of great interest to students and scholars researching nationalism public opinion youth politics political theory and quantitative and historical methods
