Communicate as a Professional Carel Jansen, Leon Stadler, Aline Douma, 2025-10-01 Across a wide range of programs in international higher education students prepare themselves for a career in their professional field Learning how to communicate as a professional is an essential part of that preparation In order to carry out their communication tasks professionals must possess a large repertoire of knowledge and skills They also must be able to decide what best suits the situation and the goals they want to achieve Already during their training students come across a variety of communication tasks that are largely new to them For these tasks too they need a broad knowledge and skills repertoire from which they can make the right choices Communicate as a Professional offers a solid foundation for students to develop the communication knowledge and skills they need both when working as a professional after they have graduated and when following an educational program that prepares them for this future

Crises of the Sentence Jan Mieszkowski, 2019-04-02 There are few forms in which so much authority has been invested with so little reflection as the sentence Though a fundamental unit of discourse it has rarely been an explicit object of inquiry often taking a back seat to concepts such as the word trope line or stanza To understand what is at stake in thinking or not thinking about the sentence Jan Mieszkowski looks at the difficulties confronting nineteenth and twentieth century authors when they try to explain what a sentence is and what it can do From Romantic debates about the power of the stand alone sentence to the realist obsession with precision and revision to modernist experiments with ungovernable forms Mieszkowski explores the hidden allegiances behind our ever changing stylistic ideals By showing how an investment in superior writing has always been an ethical and a political as well as an aesthetic commitment Crises of the Sentence offers a new perspective on our love hate relationship with this fundamental compositional category
