exclusively on disability as human rights on the African continent It provides an annual forum for scholarly analysis on issues pertaining to the human rights of persons with disabilities It is also a source for country based reports as well as commentaries on recent developments in the field of disability rights in the African region Preface This is the first issue of the African Disability Rights Yearbook ADRY Drawing inspiration from the European Yearbook on Disability Law it is the first publication of its kind that focuses on Africa It aims to bring into prominence an area traditionally neglected by both African governments and academics Following in the wake of the adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities it is the first peer reviewed journal to focus exclusively on disability as human rights on the African continent The Yearbook which is projected to appear annually is set out in three sections Section A contains academic articles Section B consists of country based research charting recent developments on disability rights legislation case law and policy developments in selected African states and Section C deals with relevant developments in the African Union AU and African sub regional organisations The 2013 Yearbook aims to set out the situation as at 31 December 2012 The publication of the Yearbook in 2013 is a milestone in the engagement on the rights of persons with disabilities by the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria under whose auspices this publication was conceived and is being produced It marks a highlight in the efforts taken by the Centre over the last few years to bring more academic attention to the rights of persons with disabilities in Africa These efforts have only been possible with the support of the Open Society foundations in particular Open Society Initiative for Southern Africa OSISA Over the last years OSISA has collaborated with the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria to strengthen the teaching and research in law faculties in the Southern Africa on disability rights The collaboration consists of the following elements a Efforts are made to assist in the building of capacity of law faculties in the region through the attendance of the LLM Human Rights and Democratisation in Africa with a focus on disability rights by staff members from these law faculties The staff members subsequently return to their faculties institute and develop teaching on disability rights and institutionalise faculty based activities and centres around disability rights So far the following faculties have participated Universidade Eduardo Mondlane Mozambique Faculdade de Direito the University of Botswana the University of Malawi Chancellor College Faculty of Law University of Namibia Midlands State University Zimbabwe Faculty of Law University of Zambia and University of Dodoma Tanzania University of Namibia These faculties centres have the responsibility mandate to research on disability rights promote awareness and sensitise key stakeholders in the population about the rights of persons with disabilities and the existing legal framework elaborate position papers and advocate for particular legal reforms keep record of identify and engage in litigation of selected cases pertaining to the violation of the rights of persons with disabilities and provide legal advice to persons with disabilities b The Centre presents a one week intensive short course on disability rights to build capacity and to disseminate information on disability rights more broadly in Africa This course is attended by participants from all over the continent c Together the participating faculties are developing a curriculum for the teaching of an undergraduate course on disability rights at law schools in the region. Academic work on and awareness about disability rights is stimulated in particular through the publication of this Yearbook, an academic conference and a first Southern African Disability Rights Moot Court Competition. This Yearbook is the accomplishment of many. It has been a project long in planning and preparation and time consuming in execution. The publication is the endproduct of collaborations between the Centre and numerous partners in particular UWC. A very sincere and profound word of thanks goes to the following: The four editors, the convening editor Prof Charles Ngwenya who joined the Centre for Human Rights last year, he worked with Dr Ilze Grobbelaar, Du Plessis, UP Prof Helene Combrinck, UWC and Dr Serges Djouyou Kamga, UNISA as co editors. It is only their dedication and devotion that has made this publication possible. Prof Ngwenya was not only the convening editor but also the editor in charge of Part A. He bore the brunt of the responsibility to keep the project going and to inspire and lead all involved towards the ever approaching deadline. Drs Grobbelaar, Du Plessis and Serges Djouyou Kamga took responsibility for Part B and Prof Combrinck for Part C. They each sacrificed enormously in terms of time and energy in order to get to this end product. Thanks to all contributors and all reviewers of contributions for dedicating themselves to this thankless task. Kate Painting acted as a most appreciated editorial assistant. She meticulously followed up references, guaranteed consistency in style and ensured felicitous language use. At the Centre, Thuto Moratua, Hlalele Yolanda Booyzen and Kevashinee Pillay also provided logistical and other support. The Yearbook is published by Pretoria University Law Press (PULP) based at the Faculty of Law, University of Pretoria. The patient and professional contribution of Lizette Hermann is much appreciated. We also thank the members of the advisory board who agreed to assist with the policy direction, review of manuscripts and lending credibility and lustre to this Yearbook by associating themselves with this endeavour. The Yearbook is very fortunate to have representation from all corners of the globe, including individuals and institutions at the leading edge of disability rights research, training and teaching. Lastly, to the Open Society Foundation and specifically OSISA and its staff. Many thanks in particular to Louise Olivier for her confidence, inspiration and consistent support which took the Centre and me personally along an exciting and challenging new road, and to Louise Ehlers and Patricia Mwanjisa who came on board later. Other Open Society staff also inspired and played important roles along the way. In line with the right of access to information and knowledge, this Yearbook is accessible freely as a free full downloadable document on the Centre's website www.chr.up.ac.za. On behalf of all those involved and of the Centre, I wish to express the hope that this Yearbook will soon come to be regarded as an indispensable tool to understand and chart legislative and policy developments on disability rights in Africa and that it will contribute to bridge the gap between the discourse of rights and its practical application and actual realisation.
