, Routledge Handbook of Food in Asia Cecilia Leong-Salobir, 2019-02-25 Throwing new light on how colonisation and globalization have affected the food practices of different communities in Asia the Routledge Handbook of Food in Asia explores the changes and variations in the region's dishes, meals and ways of eating. By demonstrating the different methodologies and theoretical approaches employed by scholars, the contributions discuss everyday food practices in Asian cultures and provide a fascinating coverage of less common phenomena such as the practice of wood eating and the evolution of pufferfish eating in Japan. In doing so, the handbook not only covers a wide geographical area including Japan, Indonesia, Vietnam, Singapore, India, China, South Korea and Malaysia but also examines the Asian diasporic communities in Canada, the United States and Australia through five key themes: Food Identity and Diasporic Communities, Food Rites and Rituals, Food and the Media, Food and Health, Food and State Matters. Interdisciplinary in nature, this handbook is a useful reference guide for students and scholars of anthropology, sociology and world history, in addition to food history, cultural studies and Asian studies in general.

Being and Becoming a Researcher in the Tourism, Travel and Hospitality Field Atila Yüksel, 2025-09-15 Despite the emphasis placed on disciplinary knowledge, adaptability and research skills as pillars of academic rigor, the process of researcher development, particularly the transition from merely acquiring knowledge to embodying the role of a researcher, has been largely overlooked, contributing to high attrition rates among PhD students and early career researchers. Possessing subject expertise and technical skills while necessary does not guarantee the intellectual, emotional and existential growth required to navigate the complexities of academic life. The process of becoming a researcher is not solely a matter of accumulating credentials but involves a deeper transformation, one that prioritizes personal development and the expansion of consciousness. This book explores both the theoretical and practical dimensions of researcher development, offering a comprehensive framework that examines the transitions researchers undergo within both their internal and external environments. It introduces the macro, mezzo and micro information spheres of researcher development, illustrating how individuals confront challenges navigate conflicts engage with contradictions and ultimately transform themselves through an evolving process of intellectual and personal growth By integrating these dimensions this book highlights the necessity of moving beyond mechanistic models of researcher training toward a more holistic approach that acknowledges the role of consciousness expansion in sustaining meaningful academic engagement Handbook of Teaching and Learning in Tourism Pierre Benckendorff, Anita Zehrer, 2017-01-27 This comprehensive Handbook provides an international perspective on contemporary issues and future directions in teaching and learning in tourism Key topics include assurance of learning development of skills learning in the field work integrated learning sustainability and critical studies internationalisation technology enabled learning links between teaching and research and graduate student supervision Within these topics attention is devoted to the discussion of curriculum pedagogy assessment students educators and trends and issues The Handbook provides a valuable resource for understanding teaching and learning theory and practice in tourism Current Issues in Tourism, Gastronomy, and Tourist Destination Research Hera Oktadiana, Myrza Rahmanita, Rina Suprina, Pan Junyang, 2022-05-25 The book focuses on contemporary research on tourism gastronomy and tourist destinations presented at the 3rd Tourism Gastronomy and Destination International Conference TGDIC 2021 It serves as a platform for knowledge and experience sharing and invites tourism scholars practitioners decision makers and stakeholders from all parts of society and from various regions of the world to share their knowledge experience concepts examples of good practice and critical analysis with their international peers The research papers presented at the conference were organized into three main categories tourism gastronomy and tourist destinations written by authors from various countries such as Indonesia China India Switzerland UK Portugal and Hungary Comparative Perspectives on Gender Equality in Japan and Norway Masako Ishii-Kuntz, Guro Korsnes Kristensen, Priscilla Ringrose, 2021-11-28 This book compares perspectives on gender equality in Norway and Japan focusing on family education media and sexuality and reproduction as seen through a gendered lens What can we learn from a comparison between two countries that stand in significant contrast to each other with respect to gender equality Norway and Japan differ in terms of historical cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds Most importantly Japan lags far behind Norway when it comes to the World Economic Forum's Gender Gap Report Rather than taking a narrow approach that takes as its starting point the assumption that Norway has so much more to offer in terms of gender equality the authors attempt to show that a comparative perspective of two countries in the West and East can be mutually beneficial to both contexts in the advancement of gender equality The interdisciplinary team of researchers contributing to this book cover a range of contemporary topics in gender equality including fatherhood and masculinity teaching and learning in gender studies education cultural depictions of gender trans experiences and feminism This unique collection is suitable for researchers and students of gender studies sociology anthropology Japan studies and European studies Tourism Planning and Development in Latin America Carlos Monterrubio, Konstantinos Andriotis, Dimitrios
