Tourism Caps Exemplar:

Critical Debates in Tourism Tej Vir Singh, 2012-08-14 In this volume tourism experts collectively discuss and debate some intriguing questions that the tourism industry poses such as the relevance of mass tourism the dilemma of authenticity whether small tourism is beautiful whether volunteer tourism is benign whether tourism contributes to climate change as well as many others The book brings together the expertise of 35 renowned international scholars of tourism to examine these perplexing issues Multidisciplinary in its content it touches upon anthropology sociology geography climatology biosciences and planning and development aspects of tourism The book provides a dialogue for an academic discussion which challenges research conservatism and stereotypes in tourism studies It will encourage scholars to test the consistency of critical notions whose heuristic value is often taken for granted The book will benefit graduates research scholars and those involved in organizing the industry sustainably

A Research Agenda for Religious Tourism Kiran A. Shinde, Joseph M. Cheer, 2024-03-14 Incisive and interdisciplinary this Research Agenda broaches topics that have been under researched within religious tourism including place attachment and marketing memory and modification of sacred landscapes for tourism needs the darker sides of religious tourism multi stakeholder governance mission trips and allied forms of tourism

Tourism Enterprises and the Sustainability Agenda across Europe David Leslie, 2016-02-24 With the emphasis on small enterprises this book provides a comprehensive analysis of what is happening across Europe in terms of sustainable development objectives and sustainability in the context of tourism supply Each contribution in this edited collection addresses specific aspects of tourism enterprise activity within the overall context of policy and practice aimed at improving environmental performance A series of broader issues are examined such as EU environmental policy and initiatives as they relate to tourism social issues such as equity and employment and transport followed by detailed examples of specific case studies Well informed and based on current research this book is informative and invaluable to any one studying tourism and hospitality today particularly those involved directly or indirectly in the fields of policy planning and development

Managing Religious Tourism Maureen Griffiths, Peter Wiltshier, 2019-02-08 Managing Religious Tourism provides a global view of the tools and resources used in demand and supply management in the context of pilgrimage and religious tourism With a focus on toolkits and best practices the book reinforces the quality of service provision and offers a reflection on consumers perspectives and what drives their purchasing decisions with regards to a variety of destinations These central themes are complemented by an understanding of management responses to consumer behaviour and mobility accessibility individualism and tourism for both sacred and secular purposes The book also examines the ways in which networks partnerships and the conceptual stakeholder approach can be employed by religious tourism suppliers working with destination management organisations The text promotes sustainable development and a triple bottom line focus with all chapters supporting policy for framing development Key features include Global perspective on tools as well as management approaches and techniques Emphasis on sustainability in connecting sacred and secular consumers Focus on promoting learning and development within this important tourism sector No Touching, No Spitting, No Praying Saloni Mathur, Kavita Singh, 2017-07-05 This volume brings together a range of essays that offer a new perspective on the dynamic history of the museum as a cultural institution in South Asia It traces the museum from its origin as a tool of colonialism and adoption as a vehicle of sovereignty in the nationalist period till its role in the present as it reflects the fissured identities of the post colonial period The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Consumption and Consumer Studies Daniel Thomas Cook, J. Michael Ryan, 2015-03-02 With entries detailing key concepts persons and approaches The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Consumption and Consumer Studies provides definitive coverage of a field that has grown dramatically in scope and popularity around the world over the last two decades Includes over 200 A Z entries varying in length from 500 to 5 000 words with a list of suggested readings for each entry and cross references as well as a lexicon by category and a timeline Brings together the latest research and theories in the field from international contributors across a range of disciplines from sociology cultural studies and advertising to anthropology business and consumer behavior Available online with interactive cross referencing links and powerful searching capabilities within the work and across Wiley s comprehensive online reference collection or as a single volume in print www.consumptionandconsumerstudies.com Accidental Queer Marc Epprecht, 2024-04-27 Since the 1990s Marc Epprecht has helped lay the groundwork for critical masculinity and African queer studies with such publications as the award winning Hungochani The History of a Dissident Sexuality in Southern Africa Here he steps outside of the academic comfort zone with a mix of story telling and reflection on his personal experiences motivations and methodological and ethical challenges through research and teaching on diverse topics encountered along the way African women s history homosexuality homophobia environmental history HIV AIDS human rights and tourism A central concern is to understand how masculinities have been constructed and contested within disordered gender race class and other relations and to wonder how the many associated harms might be fruitfully addressed at this moment of multiple existential crises Understanding today s hegemonic masculinity as an artefact of colonialism and racial capitalism that is tenaciously reproduced through the fantasy of endless economic growth he invites men to constructively engage with African feminism decolonization and degrowth theory Contesting Aviation Expansion Steven Griggs, David Howarth, 2023-05-31 This book analyses the strategies used by public authorities to expand the UK aviation industry in relation to growing political opposition and the negative impact of flying on local communities and climate change Its genealogical investigations show how governmental practices and technologies designed to depoliticise aviation and expand airports have generally failed to constitute an effective political will to counter community resistance and environmental protest Criticising the dominant logics of UK airport expansion the authors promote a radical rethinking of our attitudes to aviation in terms of sufficiency degrowth and alternative hedonism laying the ground for a more sustainable future De Gruyter Handbook of SME Entrepreneurship Marina Dabić,Sascha Kraus,2023-11-06 A small business is not a little big business Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs are considered the engines of worldwide economies and the main sources of job creation Management in these companies is different from management in larger older enterprises with their already established concepts and instruments In view of the high importance of SMEs in emerging developing and developed economies worldwide the De Gruyter Handbook of SME Entrepreneurship investigates the underlying mechanisms and practices of management within these companies with a focus on entrepreneurship growth and innovation It argues that it is time for a dedicated theory of SME Entrepreneurship to emerge Entrepreneurial thinking and behavior in SMEs must be differentiated from that of start ups and large companies On the other hand it also explores the different entrepreneurship manifestations that exist within a widely heterogeneous group of SMEs The handbook provides a theoretical framework in which to understand compare and contrast the complexity of SMEs in both domestic and international processes and addresses the strengths achievements and challenges of entrepreneurship in SMEs

The Anthropology of Ireland Thomas M. Wilson,Hastings Donnan,2006-09 Where and what is Ireland What are the identities of the people of Ireland How has European Union membership shaped Irish people s lives and interests How global is local Ireland This book argues that such questions can be answered only by understanding everyday aspects of Irish culture and identity Such understanding is achieved by paying close attention to what people in Ireland themselves say about the radical changes in their lives in the context of wider global transformation As notions of sex religion and politics are radically reworked in an Ireland being re imagined in ways inconceivable just a generation ago anthropologists have been at the forefront of recording the results The first comprehensive book length introduction to anthropological research on the island as a whole The Anthropology of Ireland considers the changing place in a changing Ireland of religion sex sport race dance young people the Travellers St Patrick s Day and much more
