Tourism Phase 1 2014:

Tourism Spaces Alan A. Lew, 2021-07-19 Geographic space is a fundamental and essential construct of the physical reality within which we live move and construct our world Through space we create others anything that is any distance from us and we experience time by moving from one place point to another Because it is so fundamental to our experience we often take geographic space for granted Tourism Spaces Environments Locations and Movements shows some of the ways that geographers and other social scientists bring spatial considerations to the forefront of our research and understanding of tourism This is seen through the spatial arrangements and distributions of tourism phenomena such as attractions destinations and in the spatial behaviour of tourists themselves Today these spatial arrangements and patterns are increasingly being captured analysed and understood through various forms of formal and informal digital data The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Tourism Microentrepreneurship

Duarte B. Morais, 2021-09-27 Tourism Microentrepreneurship shares scholarship and best practices to educate practitioners and to encourage more research on the development of microentrepreneurship and its impact on destination communities

Tourism, Change and the Global South Jarkko Saarinen, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-06-16 This significant volume is the first to focus on both the changing nature of tourism and the capacity of tourism to effect change especially in the Global South Geographically this changing nature of tourism is based on the transforming relationships between demand supply and location While this is nothing new in tourism recent decades have intensified the changing characteristics of global tourism From another perspective tourism represents a change and nowadays many localities and regions aim to use tourism as a tool for positive change i.e. development However this has turned out to be a challenging task in practice especially in the Global South context where the relationship between tourism growth and local development has often been controversial This book looks at a host of critical concepts in one volume such as growth and development adaptation and resilience sustainability and responsibility governance and planning and heritage and destination management strategies By understanding the drivers of change this book sheds new insight into the promise and role of sustainability and responsibility in tourism development This book will be of great interest to all upper level students academics and researchers in the fields of Tourism Geography and Cultural and Heritage studies Understanding the Evolution of Regional Economic

Heritage Tourism Destinations Maria D Alvarez, Atila Yuksel, Frank Go, 2016-05-27 Heritage tourism is tied to myth making and stories creative content that can be shared stored combined and manipulated but that depends on a unique cultural or natural history A significant section of the wider phenomenon that is cultural tourism heritage tourism is a demand driven industry that continues to be a subject of heated debate in academic circles Beginning with an overview of the subject this book considers the conservation and revitalization of heritage destinations as well as the role local communities have in supporting an attraction It then discusses product development and communication around the world using new techniques such as social media and examples from food tourism and sporting events before a final section reviews the planning and institutionalisation of heritage spaces A timely conclusion subsequently considers the implications of developments such as globalisation technological improvement and climate change upon these unique destinations A valuable addition to the literature this book is the first to bridge the gap between theory and practice including the latest research and international case studies for researchers and practitioners in tourism and destination management

Gender and Tourism Sustainability Claudia Eger, Ana María Munar, Cathy H.C. Hsu, 2023-03-21 This book examines the relationship between gender and sustainability in tourism Whilst an extensive body of work exists in the areas of gender and sustainability these two fields of knowledge are seldom combined to examine tourism phenomena When we look at the evolution of tourism we see that sustainability has become an essential element in educational programmes policy making and strategic considerations for organisations and destinations Whilst the beginnings of tourism sustainability were challenging presently its relevance is seldom questioned However this situation is not the case with gender research Although gender theorising and research have existed for over a century and a rich legacy of knowledge exists on this topic meaningful and respectful engagement with this line of scholarship is thus far peripheral in tourism studies The aim of this book is to reflect on and rethink the intersection of gender and tourism sustainability through the lens of gender theory and feminist epistemology to stay with the trouble and devise pathways for sustainability gender knowledge This book will be of great interest to students researchers and academics in tourism gender and sustainability as well as tourism management The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism
