experts in the field this volume provides a research led perspective to explore and understand emerging markets and segments and develop a new research framework A must have volume for higher level undergraduates graduate students and practitioners in the fields of tourism Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda,Jennie Germann Molz,2023-03-31 Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism Attuning to affect and emotion this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words For this reason as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis

From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes self love and travelling mittens and across socio spatial theories of emotions decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism Along with the contributors to this volume the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Ethnic and Minority Cultures as Tourist Attractions Anya Diekmann, Melanie Kay Smith, 2015-01-15 This book focuses on ethnic and minority communities in urban contexts and the ways in which their cultures are represented in tourism development It offers a multi disciplinary approach which draws on examples and case studies of ethnic and minority communities and cultural tourism development from all around the world including slums in India favelas in Brazil Chinatowns in Australia Jewish quarters in Central and Eastern Europe ethnic villages in China the African district of Brussels the gay quarter in Cape Town and a desert town in Israel It offers a positive perspective on ethnic and minority cultures and communities at a time when social and political support is lacking in many countries This book will be a useful resource for those studying and researching cultural and urban tourism urban planning and development community studies and urban and cultural geography Fostering Multidisciplinary Research for Sustainability Dr. Santosh Dhar, Dr. Upinder Dhar, Dr. Aditi Veda, 2024-03-29 Modern research goes beyond disciplinary horizons for devising solutions to the society's most pressing unsolved issues Within the disciplinary framework the ability to solve problems through the generation of knowledge is no more addressed from discipline specific points of view only However it has become apparent that the research needed to address today's complex problems requires the expertise of many disciplines Multidisciplinary approach incorporates a combination of concepts and knowledge from various disciplines These contributions enable the exchange of knowledge and experiences from diverse groups of people that can promote a holistic vision of a subject as well as new explanatory theories Being multidisciplinary does not mean giving up skills it means moving into new scientific directions using one's own special set of skills Rather than being an end in itself this kind of research is a way of achieving innovative goals enriched understanding and a synergy of new methods The book highlights the diverse perspectives of the researchers across disciplines from sustainable urban development to renewable energy strategies from biodiversity conservation to equitable machine learning internet of things deep learning and Artificial Intelligence AI models eco friendly methods individualized education plans and social policies that can contribute to more comprehensive and effective solutions to some of the world's most pressing issues while acknowledging that sustainability challenges are inherently interconnected hence the importance of inclusivity in research Tourism as a Pathway to Hope and Happiness Tej Vir Singh, Richard Butler, David A. Fennell, 2022-12-05 Tourism is often viewed as a phenomenon that brings out the worst in human nature Self interest overuse of resources injustice and cultural erosion are but a few examples This book explores the contrasting view that tourism can be a pathway to hope and happiness The chapters address areas including wellbeing positive psychology hopeful tourism mindfulness peace responsible tourism and spirituality The volume examines the role of tourism in preserving natural wonders and architectural masterpieces bringing out the best in tourists and locals and adding economic value if planned developed and managed sustainably It will be a useful resource for students and researchers in tourism psychology and philosophy
