Teaching Reading with YA Literature Jennifer Buehler, 2016 Jennifer Buehler shows how to implement a YA pedagogy one that revolves around student motivation while upholding the goals of rigor and complexity Jennifer Buehler knows young adult literature A teacher educator former high school teacher and host of ReadWriteThink.org's Text Messages podcast she has shared her enthusiasm for this vibrant literature with thousands of teachers and adolescents She knows that middle and high school students run the gamut as readers from nonreaders to struggling readers to reluctant readers to dutiful readers to enthusiastic readers And in a culture where technological distractions are constant finding a way to engage all of these different kinds of readers is challenging no matter the form of delivery More and more literacy educators are turning to YA lit as a way to transform all teens into enthusiastic readers If we want to meet the needs of all students as readers we have to offer books they can and want to read Today's YA lit provides the books that speak to the world of teens even as they draw them out into the larger world But we have to do more than put YA titles in front of students and teach these books as we've traditionally taught more canonical works. Instead, we can implement a YA pedagogy one that revolves around student motivation while upholding the goals of rigor and complexity. Buehler explores the three core elements of a YA pedagogy with proven success in practice: 1. a classroom that cultivates reading community; 2. a teacher who serves as book matchmaker and guide; and 3. tasks that foster complexity, agency, and autonomy in teen readers. With a supporting explication of NCTE's Policy Research Brief, Reading Instruction for All Students, and lively vignettes of teachers and students reading with passion and purpose, this book is designed to help teachers develop their own version of YA pedagogy and a vision for teaching YA lit in the middle and secondary classroom. Young Adult Literature in the Composition Classroom Tamara Girardi, Abigail G. Diversity is described by the We Need Diverse Books project as all diverse experiences, including but not limited to LGBTQIA, Native people of color, gender diversity, people with disabilities, and ethnic, cultural, and religious minorities. This study focuses on people of colour. While previous studies have looked at the representation of ethnic minorities in books for children and young adults this book examines the experiences of own voice cultural producers that create a counter narrative Specifically this book will investigate the output and experiences of British young adult fiction authors of colour BAME authors published in the UK during the period 2006 2016 drawing upon semi structured interviews with a sample of authors Content Area Literacy John E.
