Bathurst USMC (Retired), 2012-12-03 For seventeen year old high school dropout Jim Bathurst the Marine Corps's reputation for making men out of boys was something he desperately needed when he enlisted in March of 1958 What began as a four enlisted and officer We'll All Die As Marines narrates a story about a young free spirited kid from Dundalk Maryland and how the Corps captured his body mind and spirit Slowly but persistently the Corps transformed him into someone whose first love would forever be the United States Marine Corps It documents not only his leadership service and training but also regales many tales of his fellow Marines that will have the reader laughing cheering and at times crying In this memoir Bathurst reveals that for him a former DI who was awarded the Silver Star Bronze Star Medal with Combat V Purple Heart and a combat commission to second lieutenant the Corps was not a job a career or even a profession it was and still is a way of life
