The Man of Heaven and the Beautiful Ones of God Elizabeth Gunner, 2021-11-08 The role of Africans in the growth and process of Christianity in South Africa in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century In particular the book provides an insight into the role of writing and literacy in the church founded by the South African prophet Isaiah Shembe in 1910 The book provides a substantial contextualising introduction which includes discussion of the church's history and its position in contemporary South Africa and weaves in discussion of the topics of literacy and modernity The book then moves to the three documents presented in their language of composition Zulu and in an English translation The three books each from Shembe's Nazareth Baptist Church provide the reader with a fascinating insight into the growth and organisation of one of southern Africa's most influential African Churches and into the use and interpretation of the Bible by the church's founder Isaiah Shembe and by church members Central to the writings is the complex presence of Shembe present both through his own words in the first book and in the second book through the memory of Meshack Hadebe a member of the church in the 1920s and 1930s The extracts in the third book provide a glimpse of the church's hymnal and the unique religious poetry of the hymns authored by Shembe
